Mary Sia's Classic Chinese Cookbook Mary Sia,2012-12-31

Mary Sia's Chinese Cookbook has been a classic of Chinese cookery since it was first published in 1956. This fourth edition features all 300 of the original recipes ranging from simple everyday fare to more elaborate dishes for entertaining as well as essays by Mary Sia. An all new food glossary provides up to date names for ingredients along with advice on appropriate substitutions and sources for 21st century cooks. The work also includes an introduction by Rachel Laudan, renowned food historian and author of The Food of Paradise: Exploring Hawaii's Culinary Heritage. The YWCA where Mary Sia had taught for so many years named its kitchen after her. Her cookbooks sold steadily some twenty thousand copies having left the shelves by the 1980s and doubtless many more by now. Jacqueline Newman, founder and editor of Flavor and Fortune, a magazine dedicated to Chinese cooking who assembled the premier collection of English language Chinese cookbooks commented that Mary Sia's Chinese Cookbook remains one of the finest introductions to home style Cantonese cooking all these years after Mary Sia first created the recipes. Dr Newman commented to me: "She was years ahead of her time, a better cook with a better set of taste buds than most folk I know as well as a better writer." From the Introduction. English Language Cookbooks, 1600-1973 Lavonne B. Axford,1976

Culinary Nationalism in Asia Michelle T. King,2019-07-11. Winner of the Association for the Study of Food and Society's Best Edited Volume 2021. With culinary nationalism defined as a process in flux as opposed to the limited concept of national cuisine, the contributors of this book call for explicit critical comparisons of cases of culinary nationalism among Asian regions with the intention of recognizing patterns of modern culinary development. As a result, the formation of modern cuisine is revealed to be a process that takes place around the world in different forms and periods and not exclusive to current Eurocentric models. Key themes include the historical legacies of imperialism colonialism nationalism the Cold War and global capitalism in Asian cuisines internal culinary boundaries between genders ethnicities social classes religious groups and perceived traditions modernities and global contexts of Asian cuisines as both nationalist and internationalist enterprises and Asia itself as a vibrant culinary imaginary The book which includes a foreword from Krishnendu Ray and an afterword from James L Watson sets out a fresh agenda for thinking about future food studies scholarship
