question What is Twin Peaks really about Twin Peaks is about evil in various forms and poses the question What s the worst kind of evil Can the everyday evil of humans in a small mountain town ever be as evil as the evil of alien supernatural beings Or is the evil of non humans actually less threatening because it s so strange and unaccountable And does the influence of uncanny forces somehow excuse the crimes committed by regular folks Some Twin Peaks characters try to confine evil by sticking to their own moral code as in the case of Albert Rosenfeld who refuses to disguise his feelings and upsets everyone by his forthright honesty Twin Peaks is about responsibility both legal and moral Who is really responsible for the death of Laura Palmer and other murder victims Although Leland has been revealed as Laura s actual killer the show suggests that no one in town was without some responsibility And was Leland even guilty at all if he was not in control of his own mind or body Twin Peaks is about the quest for self knowledge and the dangers of that quest as Agent Cooper keeps learning something new about himself as well as about the troubled townspeople The Buddhist Cooper has to confront his own shadow side culminating in the rite of passage at the Black Lodge at the end of Season Two Twin Peaks is about madness sanity the borderline between them and the necessity of some madness to make sense of sanity The outwardly super normal if somewhat eccentric Agent Dale Cooper is the inspired deranged and dedicated shaman who seeks the truth by coming to terms with the reality of unreason partly through his dreams and partly through his existential encounters with giants logs outer space and other unexpected sources Cooper challenges official law enforcement s over reliance on science Twin Peaks is about the imagination run wild moving from metaphysics to pataphysics the discipline invented by Alfred Jarry which probes the assumption that anything can happen and discovers the laws governing events which constitute exceptions to all laws
