The Greenwood Library of American War Reporting: The Vietnam War & post-Vietnam conflicts David A. Copeland, 2005 Democracies cannot sustain unpopular wars Vietnam was the most divisive for war for the American people The enemy's tenacity was not accounted for in U S war plans until there was frustration in the field skepticism in the press and splintered support at home After the Vietnam debacle the press's latitude to cover military action was increasingly curtailed by the military and the government which sought to control the flow and content of the news better than they had in Vietnam by forcing reporters into supervised media pools

The City in Time Pamela N. Corey, 2021-10-29 Illuminates how the city has shaped contemporary artistic practice in Southeast Asia In The City in Time Pamela N Corey provides new ways of understanding contemporary artistic practices in a region that continues to linger in international perceptions as perpetually postwar Focusing on art from the last two decades Corey connects artistic developments with social transformations as reflected through the urban landscapes of Ho Chi Minh City and Phnom Penh As she argues artists' engagements with urban space and form reveal ways of grasping multiple and layered senses and concepts of time whether aligned with colonialism postcolonial modernity communism or postsocialism The City in Time traces the process through which collective memory and aspiration are mapped onto landscape and built space to shed light on how these vibrant Southeast Asian cities shape artistic practices as the art simultaneously consolidates the city as image and imaginary Featuring a dynamic array of creative productions that include staged and documentary photography the moving image and public performance and installation The City in Time illustrates how artists from Vietnam and Cambodia have envisioned their rapidly changing worlds Cultural Identity and Urban Change in Southeast Asia

William Stewart Logan, Marc Askew, 1994 Collection of essays which discuss the development and role of 11 urban places in South east Asia Emphasises the need to consider their rich history and culture when formulating development strategies and policies Includes an index Marc Askew is lecturer in the department of Asian studies and languages Victoria University of Technology Melbourne William Logan is professor of geography and head of the graduate school of arts at Deakin University
