Two Hearts In Hungary:

Two Hearts in Hungary Barbara Cartland, 2021-01-01 Hoping to surprise and impress the horse loving Empress Elisabeth of Austria during her imminent visit to his ancestral home the Duke of Buclington decides that he must invest in some of the best thoroughbred Hungarian horses He had planned to take his lovely young daughter Lady Aletha to Hungary with him to buy them but when Queen Victoria sends him on an important errand to Denmark he is then forced to send in her place his equestrian stalwart Mr James Heywood Bitterly disappointed by this as she loves her father Aletha slips away secretly intending to catch up with Mr Heywood on the Calais to Vienna train when it is too late for him to order her back to England Beautiful as she is she quickly attracts the unwanted attentions of a lecherous German traveller but luckily a flabbergasted Mr Heywood comes to her rescue just in time After much cajoling he is persuaded not to return her to her father but to take her with him pretending that she is his granddaughter Their mission is a great success They find all the superlative horses that they were seeking but Aletha loses her heart to a handsome and charming Hungarian Prince And it seems that her deceit will become her undoing when he tells her that he can never marry her because she is not of noble blood

Youth and the State in Hungary Laszlo Kurti, 2002-07-20 Youth and the State in Hungary takes as its focus the nature of Hungary's youth movements over the last seventy years In a detailed ethnographic study Laszlo Kurti examines the lives of youth workers in the Csepel district of Budapest in the context of the wider political and economic transformations witnessed during the twentieth century Kurti follows State Youth relations from the inter war capitalism that made peasants into workers through the post war state socialism Stalinism and after to the reintroduction of capitalism in 1990 This time frame allows an exploration of the transformations and dilemmas of youth class gender and ethnicity as they develop across time In the course of this study two main themes emerge the reproduction of class in youth culture across shifting socio economic conditions and the mobilisation of youth movements in resistance to the state Youth and the State in Hungary challenges the orthodox equation of youth and resistance by arguing that youth mobilisation has in fact served the interests of the state Nevertheless there remains a genuine space for resistance and contestation in the reproduction of youth culture

Hungarian Film, 1929-1947 Gábor Gergely, 2025-10-01 What does it mean for someone or something to be Hungarian People in Hungary grappled with this far reaching question in the wake of the losses and transformation brought by World War I Because the period also saw the rise of cinema audiences filmmakers critics and officials often looked at films with an eye to that question too Did the Hungary seen on screen represent the Hungary they knew from everyday life And crucially did the major role played by Jewish Hungarians in the film industry make the sector and its creations somehow Jewish rather than Hungarian Jews it was soon decided could not really be Hungarian and acts of Parliament soon barred them from taking major roles in cinema production This book tells the troubled story of that period in Hungarian cinematic history taking it up through World War II
