Two Thousand Years Of Writing In Croatia:

Two Thousand Years of Writing in Croatia Radoslav Katičić, Slobodan Prosperov Novak, 1987 Two Thousand Years of Writing in Croatia Radoslav Katičić, Slobodan Prosperov Novak, Anica Ribičić-Županić, 1989 Historical Dictionary of Croatia Robert Stallaerts, 2009-12-22 Croatia a former republic of Yugoslavia has been a self declared independent state since July 25 1991 To its own people however it is a much older country that is finally getting another chance to forge a nation The Croats trace their roots back many centuries and the depth of this resurgent nationalism helps explain why Yugoslavia split as it did and where it did As Croatia and its people try to make a success of their new state they can take hope in the notable progress that has already been made in regards to its economic restructuring democratization and a rapprochement with their neighbors and Europe more broadly The third edition of the Historical Dictionary of Croatia relates the history of this country through a detailed chronology an introduction a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences John D. McDonald, Michael Levine-Clark, 2017-03-15 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences comprising of seven volumes now in its fourth edition compiles the contributions of major researchers and practitioners and explores the cultural institutions of more than 30 countries This major reference presents over 550 entries extensively reviewed for accuracy in seven print volumes or online The new fourth edition which includes 55 new entries and 60 revised entries continues to reflect the growing convergence among the disciplines that influence information and the cultural record with coverage of the latest topics as well as classic articles of historical and theoretical importance The Pèlerinage Allegories of Guillaume de Deguileville Marco Nievergelt, Stephanie A. V. G. Kamath, 2013 New essays on the unjustly neglected P lerinage works by de Guileville showing in particular its huge contemporary influence The fourteenth century French pilgrimage allegories of Guillaume de Deguileville or Digulleville shaped late medieval and early modern European culture Portions of the P lerinage de Vie Humaine P lerinage de l Ame and P lerinage de Jhesucrist survive in more than eighty medieval manuscripts and translations into English German Dutch Castilian and Latin appeared by the early sixteenth century along with adaptations into French prose and dramatic forms and numerous early printed editions This volume furnishes a better understanding of the allegories circulation creation and importance from the 1330s into the 1560s via trans national multilingual and interdisciplinary perspectives The collection s first section on Tradition identifies the patterns that developed as Deguileville s corpus captured the attentions of adapters annotators and illustrators The second section on Authority addresses the cultural context of Deguileville himself his approach to poetic craft and the status of his French and Latin poetry The third section on Influence closely examines selected connections between the P lerinages and the literary productions of later authors translators and reading communities including the French verse of Philippe de Mzi res Castilian print adaptation and the early modern Croatian novel Overall the collection provides a variety of approaches to examining literary reception attending not only to texts but also to evidence of surviving manuscripts and early printed editions it offers new insights into a rich and complex allegorical corpus and its impact on European literary history Marco Nievergelt is a Maître Assistant in Early English Literature in the English department of the University of Lausanne Stephanie A Viereck Gibbs Kamath studies English and French medieval literature with a particular interest in allegory translation studies and the history of the material text Contributors Flor Maria Bango de la Campa Robert L A Clark Graham Robert Edwards Dolores Grmaca Andreas Kablitz John Moreau Ursula Peters Fabienne Pomel Pamela Sheingorn Sara V Torres Geraldine Veysseyre

We Are Now a Nation Daphne Winland, 2013-06-17 The Yugoslav War of Succession had untold ramifications for those living in the embattled region What often goes overlooked however is the impact that the war had on people from the former Yugoslavia who were living abroad We are Now a Nation considers the effect that the war and the independence of Croatia had on Croatian diaspora homeland relations In doing so it confronts complex questions of ideology nostalgia social suffering nationalism and identity politics as manifested in the relationship between diaspora and homeland Croats Daphne Winland draws upon extensive multi-sited ethnographic research in both Toronto and Croatia from 1992 to the present exploring the problematic nature of Croatian identity The occasion of Croatian independence she suggests resulted in the emergence of a politics of desire and disdain which further complicated efforts to define Croatness Hrvatsstvo both at home and abroad The idea of the Croatian homeland has become therefore an ambiguous space of identification a source of either conflict and tension or unity and pride a place to remember to forget or to return to The first book-length examination of North American Croatian diaspora responses to war and independence We are Now a Nation highlights the contradictions and paradoxes of contemporary debates about identity politics and place

Historical Dictionary of the Republic of Croatia Robert Stallaerts, Laurens Jeannine, 1995-05-09 The Republic of Croatia is one of the new countries which resulted from the collapse of the former Yugoslavia The Croats trace their roots back many centuries and the depth of this resurgent nationalism helps explain why Yugoslavia split as it did and to some extent where it did

Nobel Universal Graphical Language Milan Randić, 2010-05-24 Nobel is a pictographic language based on some 120 basic signs and many arrows of different shape that are mutually combined It is named after Alfred Nobel 1833-1896 Swedish chemist and industrialist inventor of dynamite who left most of his fortune to a foundation that annually gives awards to individuals whose work is characterized as greatest benefit to mankind known as Nobel Prizes Besides the awards for sciences and literature significantly Alfred Nobel included among others a prize for peace that besides individuals also organizations may obtain Although it would be utopian to believe that human conflicts could be avoided if communication tools would improve the emergence of universal languages certainly cannot make the situation worse Universal languages are a communication tool which makes it possible for people of no common language to communicate They are graphic but they should be distinguished from picture writings which only passively offer information on some event or give messages Universal languages have more similarity with the sign languages that are used for people who lost hearing or the sign language of American Plains Indians who spoke different languages and could communicate by sign language that they developed However written language has some advantages over hand sign languages in that one can communicate at a great distance particularly today in the age of fax and computer communications and that one can leave messages for posterity This is not the place to argue for or against the promise of written sign languages Graphic written sign languages exist today and the best known are Chinese characters used in China and Japan The problem with Chinese characters is that there are too many characters and it is difficult to learn so many It takes years for children in China and Japan to learn so many different characters and the task would be even harder for grown people to learn if they have not done this when young Nobel is designed to remove this difficulty and is based on the following requirements 1 SMALL NUMBER OF BASIC SIGNS 2 SIGNS SHOULD BE EASY TO RECOGNIZE 3 SIGNS SHOULD BE EASY TO REPRODUCE 4 COMBINATIONS LIMITED TO THREE SIGNS 5 COMPLEMENTARY We have already mentioned that Nobel uses about 120 basic signs which can be viewed as a small number particularly in view of over 100 signs of Nobel that are so obvious that they can be easily absorbed The other requirements are also very important There are many signs that can be easily recognized but in order to be acceptable for Nobel they also need to be easily reproduced because that will facilitate communication Also when making combinations of signs one has to make some restriction in order to maintain clarity so we decided to have no more than three signs combined into single word Finally the last requirement that of complementarities needs some explanation Besides having signs that one can easily recognize and easily draw one needs some structure to be embedded into composition of signs that facilitates one to remember and learn signs easily We refer to this structure as complementary or broadly speaking associational and what it implies is that words and objects that are related should have related signs Thus for example pairs of words like man woman cat dog coffee tea good bad love hate etc should have signs that are in some opposition while words like smoke flame fire tree wood forest water sea ocean good better best should have signs that are in competition With this in mind when one sees and learns the basic signs the meaning of many combinations of signs can be in advance anticipated This helps one to learn Nobel rather fast not months not weeks perhaps not even days but a couple of hours may suffice that one may learn hundreds and hundreds of words In this respect Nobel may be unique among languages written spoken of

Etgar Keret's Literature and the Ethos of Coping with Holocaust Remembrance Yael Seliger, 2024-01-16 This book highlights the need for a shift from thinking in terms of memories of traumatic events to changeable modes of remembrance The call for a fundamental change in approaches to commemorative remembrance is exemplified in literature written by the internationally acclaimed writer Etgar Keret Considered the most influential Israeli voice of his generation Keret's storytelling is in congruence with postmodern thinking Through transferring remembrance of the Holocaust from stagnant Holocaust commemoration museums and commemorative ceremonies to unconventional settings such as youngsters playing soccer or being forced to venture outdoors in a COVID 19 pandemic environment Keret's storytelling ushers in a unique approach to coping with remembrance of historical catastrophes The book is a valuable resource for students and scholars interested in pursuing the subjects of Etgar Keret's artistry and literature written in a post modern post Holocaust milieu about personal and collective traumatic remembrance
