Uganda The Asian Exiles:

Uganda Thomas Patrick Melady, Margaret Badum Melady, 1976 From Citizen to Refugee Mahmood Mamdani, 2011-12-08 Forty years after the 1972 expulsion of Asians from Uganda this vivid account interweaves gripping personal stories with an examination of Uganda's colonial history the evolution of post independence politics and the politicisation of racial identity Ugandan Asian Expulsion Z. Lalani, 1997 The Bitter Bread of Exile. The Financial Problems of Sir Edward Mutesa II during his final exile, 1966 - 1969 A.B.K. Kasozi, 2013-12-13 Using original sources the author weaves a number of themes into the sad personal story of Uganda's first president in his last exile 1966-1969 The first section chapters 1-5 highlights the social and political causes of Sir Edward Mutesa's exile The author argues that the failure of the state to integrate into a viable political community explains the tears Ugandans have shed since independence Sir Edward Mutesa's exile and suffering is viewed in this historical context The second and third sections chapters 6-12 not only describe Sir Edward Mutesa's suffering in exile in the UK but also bring to light an aspect of British imperial history that is rarely described in historical narratives of Africa This is the export of the British social hierarchy into the colonies In 1966 Sir Edward Mutesa II was guaranteed entrance into the UK and financially supported by his friends who were mainly titled members of the British upper class into whose ranks he was recruited by his education socialization and collaboration in governing the Uganda colonial state For the British lords and sirs who managed the empire class trumped race in their dealings with African or Asian collaborators A substantial number of his friends from this class Lord Allan Lennox Boyd Edward Heath Lord Montague Reginald Maudling Lord Carrington Sir Hugh Frazer Lord Nugent Sir Nigel Fisher Sir Dingle Foot and others showed to Sir Edward Mutesa a degree of friendship and loyalty that was amazing These elites considered him as one of their number and supported him against the official position of the Labour Government under Harold Wilson Supported by his titled friends Sir Edward Mutesa tried unsuccessfully to obtain financial support from the British Labour Government South Asians In East Africa Robert G Gregory, 1993 The South Asians who sought a new home in colonial East Africa underwent a remarkable transformation However despite the Asians range of activity the value of their presence has not been widely recognized Many political leaders both European and African have vilified the Asians as exploiters Whether free immigrants or indentured servants most Asians arrived as impoverished petty farmers In Africa sensing the opportunity to serve as middlemen in a trade with European settlers and Africans nearly all the Asians turned from farming to business They became importers and exporters retailers and wholesalers skilled artisans and building contractors Asians also filled the middle level of the civil service some became doctors lawyers teachers and other professionals In time many invested their savings in manufacturing and estate agriculture Stressing industry thrift and education the community prospered Based on numerous archival sources and extensive interviews this book is the first comprehensive study of Asian social and economic experience in the region Dr Gregory provides evidence of a substantial Asian economic and social contribution and indicates that the history of East Africa needs considerable revision to adequately acknowledge the Asians true role

Gifts from Amin Shezan Muhammedi,2022-09-02 In August 1972 military leader and despot Idi Amin expelled Asian Ugandans from the country professing to return control of the economy to Ugandan citizens Within ninety days 50 000 Ugandans of South Asian descent were forced to leave and seek asylum elsewhere nearly 8 000 resettled in Canada This major migration event marked the first time Canada accepted a large group of predominantly Muslim non European non white refugees Shezan Muhammedi s Gifts from Amin documents how these women children and men including doctors engineers business leaders and members of Muhammedi s own family responded to the threat in Uganda and rebuilt their lives in Canada Building on extensive archival research and oral histories Muhammedi provides a nuanced case study on the relationship between public policy refugee resettlement and assimilation tactics in the twentieth century He demonstrates how displaced peoples adeptly maintain multiple regional ethnic and religious identities while negotiating new citizenship Not passive recipients of international aid Ugandan Asian refugees navigated various bureaucratic processes to secure safe passage to Canada applied for family reunification and made concerted efforts to integrate into and give back to Canadian society all the while reshaping Canada s refugee policies in ways still evident today As the numbers of forcibly displaced people around the world continue to rise Muhammedi s analysis of policymaking and refugee experience is eminently relevant The first major oral history project dedicated to the stories of Ugandan Asian refugees in Canada Gifts from Amin explores the historical context of their expulsion from Uganda the multiple motivations behind Canada s decision to admit them and their resilience over the past fifty years

Uganda Balam Nyeko,1996 In recent years Uganda has almost become a byword for political instability economic mismanagement and poverty and the complete breakdown of law and order A country once described as the pearl of Africa has certainly lost any claim to the status The country is now in the process of making a slow effort towards recovery and a return to more normal conditions This new and completely revised edition of Uganda presents over 700 annotated items including books and scholarly articles

The Exiled Lucy Fulford,2023-08-31 Uganda August 1972 President Idi Amin makes a shocking pronouncement the country s South Asian population is being expelled They have ninety days to leave After packing scant possessions and countless memories 50 000 Ugandan Asians vied for limited space in countries including Canada India and the United Kingdom More than 28 000 expellees from Britain s former colony arrived in the UK and began building new lives but their incredible stories have until now remained largely hidden Fifty years on from the exodus The Exiled draws on first hand interviews and testimonies including from the author s family to illuminate a time of painful alienation and incredible courage As an entire people stepped into the unknown a global diaspora was born and the fate of the United Kingdom changed forever Journeying across continents and decades this staggering work of reportage illuminates an essential and under explored chapter in post colonial history challenging politically expedient narratives to uncover the true fate of minorities at the end of empire
