Jewish-Christian Relations Abel Mordechai Bibliowicz,2019-03-01 I am in fundamental agreement with Bibliowicz's thesis that the anti Jewish polemic in the New Testament reflects debates between Jewish and Gentile followers of Jesus not a polemic between Christians and Jews and with the implications which he has drawn for Christian theology May this book find a wide readership among people devoted to the cause of the healing of memories between Jews and Christians Peter C Phan Professor Chair of Catholic Social Thought Georgetown University President of the Catholic Theological Society of America Standing on a brilliant and insightful reconstruction of Paul and on a quite shocking but perhaps compelling reading of Mark the author offers a number of original and in some cases quite compelling theoretical reconstructions of the context and purposes of early Christian texts a work of sublime moral passion David P Gushee Distinguished University Professor of Christian Ethics and Director Center for Theology and Public Life Mercer University President elect American Academy of Religion Author of Kingdom Ethics Following Jesus in Contemporary Context An intrepid excursion into the Christian discourse The quest of an intellectual a humanist Interesting and in fact overwhelming A timely and honest engagement of the Christian texts authors and scholars by a Jewish intellectual Burton L Mack Professor of Early Christianity Claremont School of Theology California author of A Myth of Innocence Mark and Christian Origins There is great merit to Bibliowicz's approach I highly recommend this book for anyone interested in the Jewish Christian dialogue Scholars may disagree with a number of Bibliowicz conclusions as I do with his interpretation of the Epistle to the Hebrews But even in disagreeing scholars in the field of Jewish Christian studies will learn new ways of challenging and thinking about old presumptions Eugene J Fisher Distinguished Professor of Theology Saint Leo University Former staff person for Catholic Jewish relations for the U S Conference of Catholic Bishops Consultor to the Vatican Commission for Religious Relations with
