Ultimate Realities A Volume In The Comparative Religious Ideas Project:

Ultimate Realities Robert C. Neville,2001-01-01 Explores ultimate realities in a range of world religions and discusses the issue and philosophical implications of comparison itself Ultimate Realities Robert C. Neville,2018 The Comparative Religious Ideas Project is a groundbreaking three year collaboration among well known scholars of world religious traditions as well as philosophers historians sociologists of religion and theologians who view religion in more general terms These resulting three volumes offer an exciting look at important comparisons among major world religions and develop and test a theory of comparison employing the collaborative method The idea of ultimacy as a comparative category that cuts across major religious traditions and cultures is discussed in Ultimate Realities a multi authored collaborative work In this light Chinese religion Buddhism Hinduism Judaism Christianity and Islam are examined by distinguished specialist historians Two senses of ultimacy emerged in the Cross Cultural Comparative Religious Ideas Project from which this volume came One is the ultimacy of ontological matters such as God the Dao or Brahman The other is the anthropological ultimacy of religious quests such as the Buddhist journey to enlightenment which does not stress any ontological ultimate and indeed in some forms considers ontological ultimates to be problematic Religious Truth Robert Cummings Neville,2001-01-01 Explores religious truth in a range of world religions and discusses the issue and philosophical implications of comparison itself

The Dao Companion to Japanese Buddhist Philosophy Gereon Kopf,2019-06-03 The volume introduces the central themes in and the main figures of Japanese Buddhist philosophy It will have two sections one that discusses general topics relevant to Japanese Buddhist philosophy and one that reads the work of the main Japanese Buddhist philosophers in the context of comparative philosophy It combines basic information with cutting edge scholarship considering recent publications in Japanese Chinese English and other European languages As such it will be an invaluable tool for professors teaching courses in Asian and global philosophy undergraduate and graduate students as well as the people generally interested in philosophy and or Buddhism The Ends of Philosophy of Religion T. Knepper,2013-08-20 Knepper criticizes existing efforts in the philosophy of religion for being out of step with and therefore useless to the academic study of religion then forwards a new program for philosophy of religion that is in step with and therefore useful to the academic study of religion In Our Own Image Wesley J. Wildman,2017-12-15 In Our Own Image is a work of comparative philosophical theology It is a study of the roles anthropomorphism and apophaticism play in the construction of conceptual models of ultimate reality Leading scholar Wesley J Wildman considers whether we create our ideas of God He offers a comparative analysis of three major classes of ultimacy models paying particular attention to the way those classes are impacted by anthropomorphism while tracing their relative strengths and weaknesses Wildman provides a constructive theological argument on behalf of an apophatic understanding of ultimate reality showing how this understanding subsumes challenges and relates ultimacy models from the three classes being compared He describes and compares competing ultimacy models fairly and sympathetically The conclusion is that all models cognitively break on the shoals of ultimate reality but that the ground of being class of models carries us further than the others in regard to the comparative criteria that matter most Defining Religion Robert Cummings Neville, 2018-01-18 Provides a new orientation to philosophy of religion and a new theory of how religion ought to be defined In this collection of essays written over the past decade Robert Cummings Neville addresses contemporary debates about the concept of religion and the importance of the comparative method in theology while advancing and defending his own original definition of religion Neville's hypothesis is that religion is a cognitive existential and practical engagement of ultimate realities five ultimate conditions of existence that need to be engaged by human beings The essays which range from formal articles to invited lectures develop this hypothesis and explore its ramifications in religious experience philosophical theology religious studies and the works of important thinkers in philosophy of religion Defining Religion is an excellent introduction to Neville's work especially to the systematic philosophical theology presented in his magisterial three volume set Philosophical Theology Vatican II William Madges, 2006 This work presents a Second Vatican Council summoned by Pope John XXIII began in October 1962 and took place during four autumn sessions until 1965 This Council was a watershed in both world Christian and world religious history This work presents a collection of essays on the effects and influence of the Second Vatican Council on the church The key contributors include Paul Knitter Peter Phan and Christine Firer Hinze Provided by publisher Alfred North Whitehead and Yi Yulgok Chung Soon Lee, 2006-02-23 This book explores the Confucian Christian dialogue in Korea through a comparative study of the cosmologies of Alfred North Whitehead 1861-1947 the founder of process philosophy and Yi Yulgok 1536-1584 the great scholar of Korean Neo Confucianism Although their philosophical traditions are different Yulgok and Whitehead's perspectives on the universe were very similar This study argues that Whitehead's theory of eternal object actual entity has affinities with Yulgok's theory of principle material force Their two theories both based on reciprocal dialectical interrelationships view the world as a cosmos characterized by the process of becoming Accordingly Whitehead's panentheistic interpretation of the God world relationship correlates with Yulgok's Neo Confucian notion of how the Great Ultimate relates to material force These two concepts suggest a balanced structure of God and the world and offer insights into encouraging interreligious spirituality in Korea
