Theology Without Walls Jerry L. Martin,2019-10-01 Thinking about ultimate reality is becoming increasingly transreligious This transreligious turn follows inevitably from the discovery of divine truths in multiple traditions Global communications bring the full range of religious ideas and practices to anyone with access to the internet Moreover the growth of the nones and those who describe themselves as spiritual but not religious creates a pressing need for theological thinking not bound by prescribed doctrines and fixed rituals This book responds to this vital need The chapters in this volume each examine the claim that if the aim of theology is to know and articulate all we can about the divine reality and if revelations enlightenments and insights into that reality are not limited to a single tradition then what is called for is a theology without confessional restrictions In other words a Theology Without Walls To ground the project in examples the volume provides emerging models of transreligious inquiry It also includes sympathetic critics who raise valid concerns that such a theology must face This is a book that will be of urgent interest to theologians religious studies scholars and philosophers of religion It will be especially suitable for those interested in comparative theology inter religious and interfaith understanding new trends in constructive theology normative religious studies and global philosophy of religion

Bhagavadgita 17- YOGA OF TRIGONISTIC REVERENCE BASANT PRABHAT JOSHI,2023-04-28 In this chapter Shri Krishna elucidates to Arjuna the three types of reverence that manifest in living beings Satvik Rajasik and Tamasic These differing forms of reverence arise due to the dominant quality of nature within each individual as all beings are composed of the three qualities of Apra Prakriti Maya The sacraments of the soul are shaped by the qualities of nature which in turn create the mind and the resulting actions This order continues from one birth to the next and the three qualities of the soul are not easily shed Therefore those individuals possessing similar virtues to the rituals will exhibit corresponding forms of reverence Sattvik living beings hold dear foods that are juicy smooth stable and fresh with long lasting effects that promote longevity strength health happiness and love In contrast Rajasik individuals prefer foods that are bitter with a high acid content sour and salty very spicy or pungent and dry which can cause discomfort anxiety and disease in the body People of the Tamas trend on the other hand have an affinity for undercooked juiceless and raw foods as well as those whose juices have been dried up by heat deodorized or fermented and possess a bad odour Such foods can lead to negative physical and mental effects Overall the type of food one prefers is an indication of the dominant quality of nature which influences their thoughts and actions shaping their character and form of reverence Circling the Elephant John J.

Thatamanil,2020-06-02 Christian theologians have for some decades affirmed that they have no monopoly on encounters with God or ultimate reality and that other religions also have access to religious truth and transformation If that is the case the time has come for Christians not only to learn about but also from their religious neighbors Circling the Elephant affirms that the best way to be truly open to the mystery of the infinite is to move away from defensive postures of religious isolationism and self sufficiency and to move in vulnerability and openness toward the mystery of the neighbor Employing the ancient Indian allegory of the elephant and blind folded men John J Thatamanil argues for the integration of three often separated theological projects theologies of religious diversity the work of accounting for why there are so many different understandings of the elephant comparative theology the venture of walking over to a different side of the elephant and constructive theology the endeavor of re describing the elephant in light of the other two tasks Circling the Elephant also offers an analysis of why we have fallen short in the past Interreligious learning has been obstructed by problematic ideas about religion and religions Thatamanil argues while also pointing out the troubling resonances between reified notions of religion and race He contests these notions and offers a new theory of the religious that makes interreligious learning both possible and desirable Christians have much to learn from their religious neighbors even about such central features of Christian theology as Christ and the Trinity This book envisions religious diversity as a promise not a problem and proposes a new theology of religious diversity that opens the door to robust interreligious learning and Christian transformation through encountering the other A Conceptual-analytic Study of Classical Indian Philosophy of Morals Rajendra

Prasad,2008 Using reconstructive ideas available in classical Indian original works this book makes a departure in the style of modern writings on Indian moral philosophy It presents Indian ethics in an objective secular and wherever necessary critical manner as a systematic down to earth philosophical account of moral values virtues rights and obligations It thereby refutes the claim that Indian philosophy has no ethics as well as the counter claim that it transcends ethics It demonstrates that moral living proves that the individual his society and the world are really real and not only taken to be real for behavioral purposes as the Advaitins hold the self is amoral being a non agent moksa is not a moral value and the Karmic theory because of involving belief in rebirth does not guarantee that the doer of an action is also the experiencer of its results contrary to what is commonly held and Indian ethics can sustain itself even if such notions are dropped Rajendra Prasad calls Indian ethics organismic because along with ethical concerns it also covers issues related to professions politics administration sex environment etc Therefore in one format it is theoretical and applied normative and metaethical humanistic and non humanistic etc of course within the limits of the then cognitive enquiry Encyclopedia of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Spirituality Joan Marques,2026-02-02 This encyclopedia breaks new ground by unveiling how ancient spiritual wisdom can revolutionize modern diversity and inclusion practices It brings together 227 cutting edge chapters that explore transformative approaches from Lakota relationship traditions to quantum thinking and from AI bias mitigation to Eastern meditation practices in organizational change Contributors worldwide demonstrate how spiritual consciousness creates deeper more authentic diversity outcomes than traditional approaches Whether addressing decolonization technological ethics or workplace wellbeing this encyclopedia provides practical frameworks for leaders ready to move beyond surface level diversity toward profound spiritually informed transformation that honors both individual uniqueness and universal connection

Understanding Religious Life Frederick J. Streng,1985 This text uses two basic themes to enhance student understanding 1 the search for an understanding of religious life as an ongoing process and 2 the need for recognizing a variety of ultimate realities when studying religious pluralism

In Our Own Image Wesley J. Wildman,2017-12-15 In Our Own Image is a work of comparative philosophical theology It is a study of the roles anthropomorphism and apophaticism play in the construction of conceptual models of ultimate reality Leading scholar Wesley J Wildman considers whether we create our ideas of God He offers a comparative analysis of three major classes of ultimacy models paying particular attention to the way those classes are impacted by anthropomorphism while tracing their relative strengths and weaknesses Wildman provides a constructive theological argument on behalf of an apophatic understanding of ultimate reality showing how this understanding subsumes challenges and relates ultimacy models from the three classes being compared He describes and compares competing ultimacy models fairly and sympathetically The conclusion is that all models cognitively break on the shoals of ultimate reality but that the ground of being class of models carries us further than the others in regard to the comparative criteria that matter most
