Women in the Spanish Novel Today Kyra A. Kietrys, Montserrat Linares, 2014-01-10 This collection of new essays examines the representation of the female self in recent novels written by Spanish women The essays explore the myriad ways in which women's struggle with self definition and self fulfillment is contemplated in Spain during a time in which democracy has taken hold and women's rights have taken shape Authors covered include Carmen Martin Gaité Josefina Aldecoa Rosa Montero Dulce Chacón Clara Sánchez Lucia Etxebarria Care Santos Eugenia Rico Espido Freire and others

Memory, War, and Dictatorship in Recent Spanish Fiction by Women Sarah Leggott, 2015-06-10 Memory War and Dictatorship in Recent Spanish Fiction by Women analyzes five novels by women writers that present women's experiences during and after the Spanish Civil War and Franco dictatorship highlighting the struggles of female protagonists of different ages to confront an unresolved individual and collective past It discusses the different narrative models and strategies used in these works and the ways in which they engage with their political and historical context particularly in the light of campaigns for the so called recovery of historical memory in Spain the memory boom and in the broader context of memory and trauma studies The novels that are examined in this book are Dulce Chacón's La voz dormida 2002 Rosa Regés's Luna lunera 1999 Josefina Aldecoa's La fuerza del destino 1997 Carme Riera's La mitad del alma 2005 and Almudena Grandes's El corazón helado 2007 These works all highlight the multiple nature of memories and histories and demonstrate the complex ways in which the past impacts on the present This book also considers the extent to which the memories represented in these five novels are inflected by gender and informed by the gender politics of twentieth century and contemporary Spain

Memory and Cultural History of the Spanish Civil War, 2013-10-02 The authors in this anthology explore how we are to rethink political and social narratives of the Spanish Civil War at the turn of the twenty first century The questions addressed here are based on a solid intellectual conviction of all the contributors to resist facile arguments both on the Right and the Left concerning the historical and collective memory of the Spanish Civil War and the dictatorship in the milieu of post transition to democracy Central to a true democratic historical narrative is the commitment to listening to the other experiences and the willingness to rethink our present's in light of our past's The volume is divided in six parts I Institutional Realms of Memory II Past Imperfect Gender Archetypes in Retrospect III The Many Languages of Domesticity IV Realms of Oblivion Hunger Repression and Violence V Strangers to Ourselves Autobiographical Testimonies and VI The Orient Within Myths of Hispano Arabic Identity Contributors are Antonio Cazorla Sánchez Ilex Bueno Fernando Martínez López Miguel Gómez Oliver Mary Ann Dellinger Geoffrey Jensen Paula A de la Cruz Fernández María del Mar Logroño Narbona M Cinta Ramblado Minero Deirdre Finnerty Victoria L Enders Pilar Domínguez Prats Sofia Rodríguez López Scar Rodríguez Barreira Nerea Aresti and Miren Llona Listed by Choice magazine as one of the Outstanding Academic Titles of 2014 Embodying Memory in Contemporary Spain Alison Ribeiro de Menezes, 2014-04-02 This innovative book examines the emergence of a memory discourse in Spain since the millennium taking as its point of departure recent grave exhumations and the Law of Historical Memory Through an analysis of exhumation photography novels films television and comics the volume overturns the notion that Spanish history is pathological Collapse, Catastrophe and Rediscovery Jennifer Brady,Ibon Izurieta,Ana-María Medina,2014-06-02 After nearly forty years of dictatorship and an abrupt transition to democracy in the twentieth century Spain is now in a moment of great rediscovery The Peninsular country s precarious past paired with its current situation of economic crisis currently Spain has one of the highest unemployment rates in the Eurozone and movements to recover languages literatures and cultures other than Spanish creates a country where artists authors and directors are exploring existential and social issues in new and revitalized ways The chapters included in Collapse Catastrophe and Rediscovery Spain s Cultural Panorama in the Twenty First Century explore filmic literary and cultural representations of modern day Spain and the contributing authors offer insight into how the past has affected the country s artistic and literary production of today and how film and literature dialogue with the social and economic situation of Spain in the late twentieth and twenty first centuries Anchored to current cultural and social trends this collection presents a variety of perspectives and a wide range of analyses of some of the most pertinent contemporary Spanish texts and films with the goal of expanding conceptualizations of the cultural panorama of Spain today Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor,2024-09-05 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty First Century French and Spanish Women s Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women s writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women s writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty first century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women s life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard

The "strange Girl" in Twentieth Century Spanish Novels Written by Women Ellen Cecilia Mayock,2004 With an eye to the rather insular particular development and definition of feminism in Spain the author recognizes that the twentieth century has been a period of great change for peninsular women authors Her study of the creative compromises wrought by severe oppression followed by relative liberation all within the context of Spain's specific religious and regional influences illustrates the unique positioning of these women writers as shown through their female characters. While this is reflection of the current scholarship in Women's Studies examining the feminist resonance of the construction of female identity through texts written by women about women, it is one that is in its first stages of development in Spanish criticism and has been primarily author specific. Ellen C. Mayock's research provides a more panoramic view so to speak, facilitating an overview of progression between trends as opposed to a singular progression of a single author within the context of era. A very positive move that allows for full comprehension.
