

Why I Wake Early

Mary Oliver

Hello, sun in my face.

Hello, you who made the morning and spread it over the fields and into the faces of the tulips and the nodding morning glories, and into the windows of, even, the miserable and the crotchety – best preacher that ever was, dear star, that just happens to be where you are in the universe to keep us from ever-darkness, to ease us with warm touching, to hold us in the great hands of light – good morning, good morning, good morning.
Watch, now, how I start the day in happiness, in kindness.

Wake Up Oliver:

Wake Up, Oliver Sue Hendra, 1998-01-01 Oliver the owl stays up so late one night that he sees the sun come up but when he goes to share the sight with his nighttime friends they are all asleep Fathoms of the Key: The Journey Begins Carson A. Bryant, 2013-07 Many children Oliver's age have overactive imaginations but Oliver's is out of control As he struggles to determine whether he is awake or in a dream Oliver's school and personal life fall apart Worn out from a horrible Friday afternoon filled with lectures from his teacher threats from his bus driver and advice from his mother Oliver escapes to the lake with his dog Leeloo for some rest and relaxation Before their outdoor adventure ends Oliver stumbles across a key in the woods that literally transforms his world into brittle glass Fighting to escape with his life Oliver wakes to find that he has been in a daydream Later when Oliver gets home he is shocked that the key he found in his dream still exists Driven by curiosity he uses the key to open a door that leads him into a world created by his own thoughts Until Oliver can learn to control his imagination he will be lost forever in the fathoms of the key Stalking the Wild Dik-Dik Marie Javins, 2009-05-20 Stalking the Wild Dik Dik is a spirited African adventure of a solo woman traveler whose overland excursion across the continent includes challenges inevitable mishaps and more than a few debacles Author and world traveler Marie Javins is an unflappable narrator who takes even the most bizarre and patience trying situations with a dose of good humor Javins fell in love with Africa when she traversed the continent in 2001 as part of a larger world tour She later returned to spend half of 2005 revisiting the people and places that had so impacted her on her first trip Javins was struck not by the desperation of Africa but by its hope the dignity of its people the vibrancy of its cities and the inherent adventure that is inherent it offered Stalking the Wild Dik Dik is a funny and compassionate account of the sort of lively and heedless undertaking that could only happen in Africa Javins's brushes with wildlife are punctuated with more serious dilemmas Through it all Javins's experience of Africa is life altering and her witty observations make for the best kind of travel literature which takes its readers into the heart and soul of the continent Knights of the Road Evelyn Everett-Green, 1907 Who Stole Terry's Music Box? Erika M Szabo, Secrets of the Dead Simon Clark, 2014-11-01 Tombs are sealed shut for a reason Opening them can have terrifying consequences John Tolworth is delighted when he is hired to help investigate a collection of mummified bodies found in the notorious Gold Tomb in Egypt Not only is he intrigued by the work but the collection is stored in an ancient castle in Devon where John spent his childhood He looks forward to revisiting the area and to showing his family the place he grew up But when John and his family arrive at Baverstock Castle John starts to remember things Things he had forgotten What happened the last time he was there And why is Philip Kemmis the former owner of the castle and John's childhood companion now a raving madman As the mummified bodies begin to reveal their ancient secrets John begins to think the unthinkable Fight Against Fate John Rupert Farrell, 1911 Oliver's Old Pictures, Or, The Magic Circle Emma Marshall, 1888 The Wolf Boys' Club JJ Christopher, 2003-11-17 Hidden in the heights of the Colorado Rocky Mountains outside of Denver stands the Complex a government facility so secret it doesn't officially exist Within seven boys suffer from a deadly disease one that causes them to fear the open air more than anything else more than any nightmare any child has ever had They were told to resign themselves to their fate They were told that finding a cure would be a miracle They were told they were never going to leave this place as long as they were alive and that's what they've always believed until now Oliver Taylor is leaving the Complex for the first time in fifteen years Hell breathe unfiltered air Hell know the touch of another human being Hell see the world that was denied him Through a freak twist of fate he's gone into total remission The doctors are baffled by his sudden health but loathe letting him go for other reasons Oliver knows too much He simply can't be allowed to go free Jake Danziger government operative for the Agency a branch of the intelligence network with supreme authority is assigned to him His job Be a father figure to a boy who has never had one and watch him Watch him closely But how is Jake supposed to do that when Oliver keeps disappearing And people keep dying And Oliver himself seems unaware of anything other than his incredible intelligence his strength his speed and his memories Shadowy flashes of doctors in surgical masks of shiny scalpels and a lifetime of agony Is there another truth hidden within all the secrets Will Oliver survive to save his brothers And what lies waiting inside the Complex that the doctors fear so much
