Written with an engaging prose style that blends erudition with accessibility, the work reflects the early 20th century literary context, emphasizing both the importance of critical engagement with texts and the emotional resonance literature can evoke. Quiller Couch offers insightful analyses navigating various genres and periods as he urges readers to approach books not just as repositories of information but as transformative experiences that shape the human condition. Arthur Quiller Couch, a noted literary scholar and professor at Cambridge University, was deeply influenced by the rich literary traditions of the English canon. His passion for literature paired with his belief in the essential role of reading in personal development drove him to articulate a philosophy that embraces both enjoyment and critical thought. His experience as an editor and novelist also imbued him with a unique perspective on the art of storytelling, fostering an understanding that catalyzed this seminal work. On The Art of Reading is a must-read for anyone seeking to deepen their appreciation for literature. A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol. XL (Forty-Five Volumes); Songs, Hymns, Lyrics Charles Dudley Warner, 2008-07-01 Popular American essayist, novelist, and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER (1829-1900) was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing, which encompassed travelogue, biography, and autobiography, fiction, and more, and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers. Here, the prolific writer turned editor offers his final grand work, a splendid survey of global literature, classic and modern, and it's not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain, who stole Warner's quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it, had assembled this set, it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world. Volume 40 is a comprehensive selection of songs and hymns, including works by Richard Lovelace, Nora Hopper, James Montgomery, Sarah Williams, Charles Godfrey Leland, Andrew
