

Two Families

James Patrick Howley

Two Families:

Two Families Harold Johnson, 2019-01-31 First Nations Elders interpreted treaties as instruments that gave Europeans the right to settle here share resources and build a relationship of equality with those who were here before These elders did not intend the treaties to allow the subjugation and impoverishment of First Nations or give settler governments the right to legislate every aspect of First Nations activities In an easy to read narrative Harold Johnson presents an eloquent view on behalf of a people of what treaties represent including the justice system and reconciliation of laws resources and taxation assimilation leadership and sovereignty Constitutional rights youth and relations between next generations
