Thomas,1971      Hollywood in the Fifties Gordon Gow,Tony Thomas,1971 Illustrated book on Hollywood films and stars of the 1950s      The Pedagogy of Adaptation Dennis Cutchins,Laurence Raw,James M. Welsh,2010-02-23 From All Quiet on the Western Front and Gone with the Wind to No Country for Old Men and Slumdog Millionaire many of the most memorable films have been adapted from other sources And while courses on film studies are taught throughout the world The Pedagogy of Adaptation makes a strong case for treating adaptation studies as a separate discipline What makes this book unique is its claim that adaptation is above all a creative process and not simply a slavish imitation or reproduction of an original This collection of essays focuses on numerous contexts to emphasize why adaptations matter to students of literature It is the first such volume devoted exclusively to teaching adaptations from a practical teacher centered angle Many of the essays show how adaptation as a discipline can be used to prompt reflection on cultural historical and political differences Written by specialists in a variety of fields ranging from film radio theater and even language studies the book adopts a pluralistic view of adaptation showing how its processes vary across different contexts and in different disciplines Defining new horizons for the teaching of adaptation studies these essays draw on such disparate sources as Frankenstein Moby Dick and South Park This volume not only provides a resource book of lesson plans but offers valuable pointers as to why teaching literature and film can help develop students skills and improve their literacy      Encyclopedia of British Humorists Steven H. Kunitz,1975      International Stars at War James E. Wise,Scott Baron,2002 The last in a popular series on movie stars in the military this handsome book provides readers with a guide to film actors of many nations who served in various branches of their own military forces. Because they appeared in Hollywood movies many of these figures will be familiar to Americans. A few even won Oscars. Others worked closer to home but are still readily recognizable. Most of them date their service to World War II and the preponderance is British. Among the more than sixty stars featured are the British actors Richard Attenborough, Richard Burton, Michael Caine, Royal Navy gunner Sean Connery, Alex Guinness, Rex Harrison, Anthony Hopkins, who spent a year with the Royal Artillery during the Cold War, Ray Milland, Roger Moore, a first lieutenant with the Royal Army in occupied West Germany after World War II, David Niven, Michael Rennie, and Peter Ustinov. Those from Canada include Lorne Greene, Raymond Massey, and Walter Pidgeon. The Frenchmen include Maurice Chevalier and Charles Boyer. Also featured are Laurence Harvey of South Africa, Peter Finch of Australia, Oskar Werner of Germany, Toshiro Mifune of Japan, and Audrey Hepburn, who as a child was a courier for World War II resistance fighters in Holland. While the book focuses on the stars' military experiences, it also provides information about their earlier lives and screen careers after their service. Like the other books in the series, it will have wide appeal.
