The Country Between Us

Francis Marion Crawford

The Country Between Us:

The Country Between Us Carolyn Forché, 1983 The book opens with a series of poems about El Salvador where Forché worked as a journalist and was closely involved with the political struggle in that tortured country in the late 1970s Forché's other poems also tend to be personal immediate and moving Perhaps the final effect of her poetry is the image of a sensitive brave and engaged young woman who has made her life a journey She has already traveled to many places as these poems indicate but beyond that is the sense of someone who is in Ignazio Silone's words coming from far and going far The Country Between Us Carolyn Forché, 2019-03-28 Carolyn Forché's The Country Between Us bears witness to what she saw in El Salvador in the late 1970s travelling around a country erupting into civil war Briefly available from Jonathan Cape in the 1980s it is now reissued by Bloodaxe to coincide with the publication of Forché's long-awaited memoir of those times What You Have Heard Is True from Penguin A Country Between Stephanie Saldaña, 2017-02-07 A Country Between reminds us that grief is as indispensable to joy as light is to shadow Beautifully written ardent and wise Geraldine Brooks Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Secret Chord People of the Book and March Moving her family to a war zone was not a simple choice but she's determined to find hope love and peace amid the conflict in the Middle East When young mother Stephanie Saldaña finds herself in an empty house at the beginning of Nablus road the dividing line between East and West Jerusalem she sees more than a Middle Eastern flash point She sees what could be home Before her eyes the fragile community of Jerusalem opens and she starts to build her family to outlast the chaos But as her son grows so do the military checkpoints and bomb sirens and Stephanie must learn to bridge the gap between safety and home always questioning her choice to start her family and raise her child in a country at war A Country Between is a celebration of faith language and family and a mother's discovery of how love can fill the spaces between what was once shattered leaving us whole once more An American Politician Francis Marion Crawford, 1884 A Poetics of Resistance Mary K.
