The Tutankhamun Variations:

The Tutankhamun Variations John Greening, 1991 John Greening's poetry confronts us with history with the deeds of the past as they affect the needs of the present In his Tutankhamun sequence the boy king only has a walk on role while the lead players Howard Carter and Lord Carnarvon who opened the pharaoh's tomb in 1922 seem prompted from the wings by a distinctly modern voice Two other sequences Plantagenets and Civil War Poems present dramatic portraits of historical figures from Richard I to Cromwell while The Winter Journey follows three members of Scott's Antarctic expedition on their hellish trek to find an Emperor Penguin's egg

The Silence John Greening, 2019-07-08 Meditations on silence creativity and the echoes of the past The Silence explores the mystery of artistic creation drawing inspiration from Sibelius's struggle with his uncompleted eighth symphony John Greening contemplates the profound silences that shape our lives from the silence of death to the pregnant pause before inspiration strikes This collection journeys through diverse landscapes Finland the Peak District ancient Egypt and the hidden histories beneath Heathrow Airport to unearth the connections between art nature memory and the search for meaning For readers who appreciate thoughtful evocative poetry that grapples with life's big questions Meditations on art nature and history Exploration of silence and creativity Evocative language and imagery

Chief Of Seers Elizabeth Goring, Nicholas Reeves, John Ruffle, 2012-11-12 Written in memory of the late Cyril Aldred one of the world's most highly regarded experts in Egyptian art the 30 original and thought provoking essays in this volume by an international team of leading scholars are a major contribution to Egyptian art history to Egyptology and to art history in general

Hollow Palaces Kevin Gardner, John Greening, 2021-09-01 The country house poem was born in the seventeenth century as a fruitful way of flattering potential patrons But the genre's popularity faded ironically just as country house society was emerging It was only when the power and influence of the landed classes had all but ebbed away that poets returned to the theme attracted perhaps by the buildings irresistible dereliction but equally by their often very personal histories This is the first complete anthology of modern country house poems and it shows just how far as Simon Jenkins points out in his Foreword poems can penetrate the souls of buildings Over 160 distinguished poets representing a diversity of class race gender and generation offer fascinating perspectives on stately exteriors and interiors gardens both wild and cultivated crumbling ruins and the extraordinary secrets they hide There are voices of all kinds whether it's Edith Sitwell recreating her childhood W B Yeats and Wendy Cope pondering Lissadell or Simon Armitage's labourer confronting the Lady who's got the lot We hear from noble landowners and loyal or rebellious servants and from many an inquisitive day tripper The book's dominant note is elegiac yet comedy satire even strains of Gothic can be heard among these potent reflections Hollow Palaces reminds us how poets can often be the most perceptive of guides to radical changes in society The book is illustrated by Rosie Greening

After Tutankhamun Reeves, 2013-10-28 First published in 1992 This book includes research and excavation in the Royal Necropolis at Thebes presented a meeting to mark seventy fifth anniversary of 1915 when the Earl of Carnarvon and Howard Carter had embarked upon their search for Tutankhamun in a search destined to be crowned with such stunning success eight years later. What has happened in the Valley of the Kings since that discovery was the theme of our meeting a theme addressed over the following two days by an international panel of leading Egyptologists.

Tutankhamun and Carter Rogerio Sousa, Gabriele Pieke, Tine Bagh, 2024-08-15 First scholarly multi disciplinary re assessment of Howard Carter's discovery and excavation of Tutankhamun's tomb and the impact of the find on our understanding of the material culture of Ancient Egypt. The discovery of the tomb of Tutankhamun in 1922 stands out as one of the most important finds of modern archaeology revealing an enormous wealth of objects encapsulating techniques, vestiges of uses and re uses of materials as well as unrivalled clues regarding the complex set of beliefs associated with the pharaonic funerary material culture. Once cleared from the tomb these objects have captivated the world with their irresistible charm and beauty ending up playing a role in contemporary popular culture. However it seems that such magnetism rather hindered than facilitated the scholarly study of the find. One hundred years after the discovery of this magnificent tomb most of its objects remain insufficiently studied to this day. This volume aims to show how it remains challenging to study Tutankhamun's objects gathering a collection of studies authored by leading scholars on conservation, materials, funerary beliefs as well as the reception of motifs and the impact of the discovery. Through these studies it becomes clear how ancient objects can help us reconstruct the complex fabric of the ancient Egyptian society and how they keep interacting with modern audiences.

inhabitants of the river basin are to cope with their anticipated needs Part One traces the geological history of the Nile from the time it started to excavate its valley some six million years ago until the present shape was assumed during the wet period which affected Africa after the retreat of the ice of the last glacial age some 10 000 years ago Part Two deals with the amount of water that the river and its tributaries carry at present and have carried in the past Part Three discusses the utilization of the water of the Nile from the time of the first appearance of man in the valley until the present time It traces man s attempt to harness the river from the earliest time to the building of the Aswan High Dam The book evaluates the effects of the dam after twenty years of operation Part Four covers the present water supply demand balance in each basin state and discusses the future plans of these countries to use the waters of the Nile The rapidly growing populations and the
