The Undead Mother:

UNDEAD MOTHER. CHRISTINA. WIELAND,2019 The Undead Mother Christina Wieland,2000 Wieland argues that the Western psyche is based upon denial of the power of the mother Through clinical material and re readings of myths fairytales and other cultural artefacts she demonstrates how this act of universal matricide has wrought havoc The Mother in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction Elissa Marder,2012 This book analyses the relationship between the body technology and language by focusing on the uncanny figure of the mother in psychoanalysis photography and literature and contends that the concept of human birth is represented through mechanical repetition and technological modes of reproduction rather than as a natural event The Feeling of Certainty Nikolay Mintchev,R. D. Hinshelwood,2017-11-09 This book explores the concept of certainty a term which is widely used in everyday language to designate a psychological experience or feeling but is rarely considered controversial or politically charged The Feeling of Certainty argues that conversely this most ordinary of feelings plays a key role in shaping identity formation social exclusion prejudice and commitment to political causes The authors question what it means for the subject to feel certainty about her or his relationships to self and others From where does the feeling of certainty originate and how does it differ from modes of thought that are open to scepticism about the order of things They draw on a wide range of theories including those of Freud Klein Lacan Wittgenstein Bion and Jung challenging readers to consider the world of ideologies symbols and stereotypes in which certainty is entrenched as well as the inter and intra psychic processes and defence mechanisms which form the unconscious foundation of the experience of certainty This collection will offer valuable insight to scholars of psychology politics social science and history Adopted Women and Biological Fathers Elizabeth Hughes,2017-03-01 Adopted Women and Biological Fathers offers a critical and deconstructive challenge to the dominant notions of adoptive identity The author explores adoptive women s experiences of meeting their biological fathers and reflects on personal narratives to give an authoritative overview of both the field of adoption and the specific history of adoption reunion This book takes as its focus the narratives of 14 adopted women as well as the partly fictionalised story of the author and examines their experiences of birth father reunion in an attempt to dissect the ways in which we understand adoptive female subjectivity through a psychosocial lens Opening a space for thinking about the role of the discursively neglected biological father this book exposes the enigmatic dimensions of this figure and how telling the relational story of reconciliation might be used to complicate wider categories of subjective completeness belonging and truth This book attempts to subvert the culturally normative unifying system of the mother child bond and prompts the reader to think about what the biological father might represent and how his role in relation to adoptive female subjects may be understood This book will be essential reading for those in critical psychology gender studies narrative work sociology and psychosocial studies as well as appealing to anyone interested in adoption issues and female subjectivity Escape Through the Sacred Forest Marc Van Pelt,2014-11-11 When
