Dick Hazel Pierce, 1982      World Authors, 1980-1985 Vineta Colby, 1991 Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the circumstances under which works were produced and their literary significance Each profile also includes critical evaluation a list of the author's principal works with date first published a list of major critical works and a portrait or photograph where available      Future Females Marleen S. Barr, 1981 A justification for paying serious attention to science fiction may by now be necessary only for other literary critics and scholars Still the question of why a book addressing itself to science fiction has to be faced briefly This comment the opening statement of Darko Suvin's recent book is of concern to Professor Barr editor of this volume since Future Females is addressing itself to women in science fiction Metaphorically speaking if the mere mention of the genre causes a ruffling of academic feathers then relating to women is analogous to placing all those simply ruffled feathers in front of a wind machine Everyone will not welcome a volume where science fiction is viewed in terms of women but Professor Barr felt such a volume is needed As Roger Schlobin's bibliography indicates women are certainly contributing continuously to the science fiction field This collection of essays illuminates some of this fiction      Mind in Motion Patricia S. Warrick, 1987 Discussed here are the eight novels that Patricia Warrick considers representative of Dick's finest writing the works that will become classics including The Man in the High Castle and Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep Warrick shows that Dick had a remarkable sense of the cultural transformation taking place in the last half of the 20th century Dick points out the cracks in our institutions our ideologies and our value systems that will inevitably lead to their collapse His moral vision perceived a universe of infinite possibility with shapes that constantly transformed themselves a universe in process And his mind was a mind in motion constantly questioning finding answers rejecting them in order to seek other possibilities For Dick having fixed unchangeable answers was tantamount to entropy and death      Search for Philip K.
