Thinking About Islam:

Thinking about Islam John Bernard Taylor, Raymond Trudigan, 1983 From the Thinking About Religions series a series for people aged 16 which gives a sympathetic account of the practices and beliefs of the world's major faiths Living as we do in a pluralist society with a wide variety of culture and religion the study of world religions can no longer be a rapid survey that does no more than offer the student a slight acquaintance with the historical founder of a faith together with a knowledge of the more unusual customs and traditions associated with his followers who are through of as living in some remote part of the world The religions of the world are on our doorstep in the press and on television if not literally in our road This book one of a series seeks to bring understanding and tolerance in a diverse society and it is the hope of editor authors and publishers that study of this kind will also help the reader to an understanding of his or her own faith at a deeper level Islam has a belief in one God whose authority extends to every part of life It is a complete way of life covering personal behaviour social conventions literature art and politics Its moral obligations are clear and definite Those who practise Islam have a strong feeling of togetherness and a burning desire to do the will of God

Religion as Critique Irfan Ahmad, 2017-11-20 Irfan Ahmad makes the far reaching argument that potent systems and modes for self critique as well as critique of others are inherent in Islam indeed critique is integral to its fundamental tenets and practices Challenging common views of Islam as hostile to critical thinking Ahmad delineates thriving traditions of critique in Islamic culture focusing in large part on South Asian traditions Ahmad interrogates Greek and Enlightenment notions of reason and critique and he notes how they are invoked in relation to others including Muslims Drafting an alternative genealogy of critique in Islam Ahmad reads religious teachings and texts drawing on sources in Hindi Urdu Farsi and English and demonstrates how they serve as expressions of critique Throughout he depicts Islam as an agent not an object of critique On a broader level Ahmad expands the idea of critique itself Drawing on his fieldwork among marketplace hawkers in Delhi and Aligarh he construes critique anthropologically as a sociocultural activity in the everyday lives of ordinary Muslims beyond the world of intellectuals Religion as Critique allows space for new theoretical considerations of modernity and change taking on such salient issues as nationhood women's equality the state culture democracy and secularism

A Thinking Person's Guide to Islam Ghazi bin Muhammad (Prince of Jordan), 2017

A Thinking Person's Guide to Islam H.R.H. Prince Ghazi Bin Muhammad, 2018 The world is at a crossroads today A tiny minority of Muslims seems to be bent on hijacking the religion of Islam and bringing it into perpetual conflict with the rest of the world Because of their actions very few non Muslims understand the real difference between Islam as it has always been and the distorted perversions of Islam today This book is an attempt to positively say what Islam actually is and always was as well as what it is not Lucid in its explanations unassailable in its logic a book of the moment simply spot on H E Muhammad Sa ad Abubakar The Sultan of Sokoto Nigeria Easy to read easy to understand and easy to swallow and digest It very beautifully explains what Islam really is how it is explained in its sacred texts and how it has been understood throughout centuries by the overwhelming majority of Muslims Mufti Muhammad Taqi Usmani A very much needed book comprehensive yet concise easy to read and authoritative A must read book Shaykh Muhammad Al Yaqoubi A salient account of a mighty faith drawn in deft strokes by an insider Edifying broad and stimulating Shaykh Nuh Keller Much anxiety comes from not properly understanding what others think or believe One example today is the widespread misunderstanding of Islam So when a respected scholar of Islamic philosophy such as Prince Ghazi bin Muhammad writes A Thinking Person s Guide to Islam it is of global significance I welcome the publication of this book convinced that interested readers will find much in it to inspire them and set their minds at rest H H the 14th Dalai Lama Tenzin Gyatso A most authentic presentation of Islam in its contemporary context Professor M Hashim Kamali IAIS Malaysia Exceptionally lucid in explanation deeply scholarly and yet accessible on a popular level this is an essential book for Muslims and non Muslims alike at this time in our civilization Revd Canon Professor Paul S Fiddes Professor of Systematic Theology University of Oxford A concise luminously clear and highly readable explanation of Islam from the pen one of its best educated and most influential advocates Professor Miroslav Volf Yale University Divinity School The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam Mohammad Iqbal,2013-05-22 The Reconstruction of Religious Thought in Islam 1930 is Muhammad Iqbal s major philosophic work a series of profound reflections on the perennial conflict among science religion and philosophy culminating in new visions of the unity of human knowledge of the human spirit and of God Iqbal s thought contributed significantly to the establishment of Pakistan to the religious and political ideals of the Iranian Revolution and to the survival of Muslim identity in parts of the former USSR It now serves as new bridge between East and West and between Islam and the other Religions of the Book With a new Introduction by Javed Majeed this edition of The Reconstruction opens the teachings of Iqbal to the modern Western reader It will be essential reading for all those interested in Islamic intellectual history the renewal of Islam in the modern world and political theory of Islam s relationship to the West A Reconstruction of Social Thought in Islam Mir Mohammed Ibrahim,1997 Political Islam and Global Media Noha Mellor,Khalil Rinnawi,2016-06-10 The development of new and social networking sites as well as the growth of transnational Arab television has triggered a debate about the rise in transnational political and religious identification as individuals and groups negotiate this new triad of media religion and culture This book examines the implications of new media on the rise of political Islam and on Islamic religious identity in the Arab Middle East and North Africa as well as among Muslim Arab Diasporas Undoubtedly the process of globalization especially in the field of media and ICTs challenges the cultural and religious systems particularly in terms of identity formation Across the world Arab Muslims have embraced new media not only as a source of information but also as a source of guidance and fatwas thereby transforming Muslim practices and rituals This volume brings together chapters from a range of specialists working in the field presenting a variety of case studies on new media identity formation and political Islam in Muslim communities both within and beyond the MENA region

Offering new insight into the influence of media exposure on national political and cultural boundaries of the Islamic identity this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics specifically political Islam and political communication

A Fundamental Fear S. Sayyid, 2003-10 Breaking with the Arab centrism of Islamic studies Sayyid shows how the rise of Islamism or Islamic fundamentalism can only be understood in the context of Eurocentrism The book will be stimulating reading for courses in cultural studies Islamic studies and international relations

The Princeton Encyclopedia of Islamic Political Thought Gerhard Bowering, Patricia Crone, Mahan Mirza, 2013 In 2012 the year 1433 of the Muslim calendar the Islamic population throughout the world was estimated at approximately a billion and a half representing about one fifth of humanity In geographical terms Islam occupies the center of the world stretching like a big belt across the globe from east to west P vii

Mapping Islamic Studies Azim Nanji, 2011-09-20 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline

Thinking about Islam John Bernard Taylor, 1971-01 A sympathetic account of the theology practice and social implications of Islam for pupils aged 16

Handbook of Islamic Banking Kabir Hassan, Mervyn Lewis, 2009-01-01 The Handbook of Islamic Banking comprises 25 studies by leading international experts on Islamic banking and finance specially commissioned to analyse the various debates and the current state of play in the field From its origins thirty years ago Islamic banking has expanded rapidly to become a distinctive and fast growing segment of the international banking and capital markets Despite this expansion Islamic banking still remains poorly understood in many parts of the Muslim world and continues to be a mystery in much of the West This comprehensive Handbook provides a succinct analysis of the workings of Islamic banking and finance accessible to a wide range of readers At the same time it seeks to bring the current research agenda and the main issues on Islamic banking before a wider audience Islamic banking offers as an alternative to conventional interest based financing methods a wide variety of financial instruments and investment vehicles based on profit and loss sharing arrangements These are all explored in detail along with other subjects such as governance and risk management securities and investment structured financing accounting and regulation economic development and globalization M Kabir Hassan Mervyn Lewis and the other contributors have created an authoritative and original reference work which will contribute to a wider understanding of Islamic banking as well as provoking further discussion and research It will be invaluable to all scholars researchers and policymakers with an interest in this subject

Liberal Islam Charles Kurzman, 1998 This book contends that Liberal Islam is not a contradiction in terms but rather a thriving tradition more than a century old and undergoing a revival within the last generation This anthology presents the translated work of 32 Muslims who are concerned with the separation of church and state democracy the condition of women the rights of minorities freedom of thought and the future of human progress

New Thinking in Islam Katajun Amirpur, 2016-11-15 In Rethinking Islam Katajun Amirpur argues that the West's impression of Islam as a backward looking faith resistant to post Enlightenment thinking is misleading and due to its effects on political discourse

Introducing readers to key thinkers and activists such as Abu Zaid a free thinking Egyptian Qur'an scholar Abdolkarim Sorous an academic and former member of Khomeini's Cultural Revolution Committee and Amina Wadud an American feminist who was the first woman to lead the faithful in Friday Prayer Amirpur reveals a powerful yet lesser known tradition of inquiry and dissent within Islam one that is committed to democracy and human rights By examining these and many other similar figures ideas she reveals the many ways they reject fundamentalist assertions and instead call for a diversity of opinion greater freedom and equality of the sexes

Islamic Thought in the Rise and Supremacy of Islamic Technological Culture S. Waqar Ahmed Husaini, 2001 Islamic Thought in the Rise and Supremacy of Islamic Technological Culture Water Resources and Energy brings out the role of Islamic ideological culture in the birth rise and world supremacy of Islamic technological culture during the First to Eighth AH Seventh to Fourteenth AD centuries Examples are given from the history of water resources and energy Islamic ideology refers to implications for the two cultures of the Quranic concept of God and prophethood the Kitab al Kharaj books on the Traditions of Prophet Muhammad Islamic law esp land tenure and environmental laws economics politics and administration etc The primary beneficiaries of these Islamic cultures during the early centuries when Muslims were a minority in the Islamic world states were the non Muslim majorities the latter therefore embraced Islam first gradually and later on rapidly The book presents the way to revive the Islamic ideological and technological cultures through a critique of the two main causes for the decline and continued backwardness of Muslim cultures Sufism and takhsis i e reduction limitation restriction of Islamic law to only family laws Islam to rituals and superficial aspects of the five pillars exclusion of Islamic science technology economics etc from Islamic epistemology and education and other manifestations of takhsis

The Growth and Development of National Thought in India Ishwara Topa, 1928

A Short History of Islamic Thought FITZROY. MORRISSEY, 2021-11-11 A scholarly yet accessible history of Islamic thought from its foundation in the seventh century to the present day in 250 pages from a brilliant historian of the Islamic world Day after day we read of the caliphate and the Qur'an of Sunni and Shi'a Salafis and Sufis integration and isolation radicals and refugees Almost a quarter of the world's population is Muslim It is clear that understanding the modern world requires knowing something about Islam But while much is said and written about Islam and the global trends and historic events connected to it little attention is given to placing these phenomena within their greater historical religious and intellectual context Tracing thirteen centuries of Islamic history from the foundation of Islam in the seventh century and the life of Muhammad through the Crusades in the Middle East and the growth of great empires to the often fraught 21st century A Short History of Islamic Thought considers questions of interpretation and legacy of God and his relationship with his followers of the lives of Muslims and how they relate to others Through these questions Fitzroy Morrissey presents not a monolithic creed but a nuanced faith made up of four intellectual tendencies that share so much and differ greatly A Short History of Islamic Thought is a concise and engaging volume that will appeal to non Muslim readers looking to better understand the world s second largest religion as well as Muslims seeking a background to the historical dimensions of their faith and those interested in the intellectual history of the last millennium and a half Re-evaluation of Islamic Thought and Other Essays Khwaja Abdul Rashid,1975
