W. Lawrence Hogue

Third Life:

Alice Walker Gerri Bates, 2005-10-30 Alice Walker born in Eatonton Georgia in 1944 overcame a disadvantaged sharecropping background blindness in one eye and the tense times of the Civil Rights Movement to become one of the world's most respected African American writers While attending both Spelman and Sarah Lawrence Colleges Walker began to draw on both her personal tragedies and those of her community to write poetry essays short stories and novels that would tell the virtually untold stories of oppressed African and African American women providing readers with hope and inspiring activism Perhaps best known for her novel The Color Purple 1982 which won the Pulitzer Prize in 1983 and became a controversial film three years later Walker has introduced and developed womanist theory criticism and practice and continues to champion the causes of women of color by encouraging their strength and liberation in her life and her writings Literary works analyzed in this volume The Third Life of Grange Copeland Meridian The Color Purple The Temple of My Familiar Possessing the Secret of Joy By the Light of My Father's Smile The Way Forward Is With a Broken Heart Now is the Time to Open Your Heart

The Three Lives of Maul Entringer (American Chapters) Greta Gorsuch, On a cold spring morning in 1925 in Garnet Texas Maul Entringer and Mabel Johnson are married Together they build a life in the Flats the only part of Garnet where African Americans are allowed to live They won't stay long They'll find a better town with more opportunities But there are a few things Maul has not told his young beautiful wife Things happened to Maul when he was young and he can't escape them Set in 1920s Oklahoma Texas and New Mexico The Three Lives of Maul Entringer shows how one man learns to live with his past Maul meets ghosts and even becomes a ghost twice as he reclaims his life and love for Mabel Keywords ESL EFL graded reader leveled reader American history THE UNITY IN THE UNIVERSE Vassil Manev, 2014-06-11 I was advised to start this book with where I studied and who my teachers were I'm not going to do that I am an ordinary person with unordinary thoughts My autobiography consists of what I've done mainly discoveries combined with theory This is what you are holding in your hands now and the incredible applications that follow from them For many people where they studied and who taught them it is important but for me it does not matter Pierre Fermat was educated as a lawyer In his spare time he was engaged in mathematics and left to mankind a number of mathematical discoveries Evariste Galois did not even finish high school and was left without a degree because he could not take the Matura exam in mathematics However he left humanity almost all modern mathematics Thomas Edison was almost illiterate but this did not prevent him from becoming one of the most prolific inventors in his time At the same time tens of thousands of scientists work in institutes leaving piles of books to mankind without any discoveries in them In their scientific works there are only findings Most of them are convinced that they do not make any discoveries because everything is already discovered The truth is quite different What we know is limited but what we do not know has NO boundaries I wrote this book because some omnipotence forced me to do this My research showed that there are amazing events that are associated with rapid technological and spiritual development and change in the structure of human society All this will be accompanied by natural cataclysms Therefore some biblical texts are misunderstood and misinterpreted Under these conditions it is impossible to stay calm Don't let the mathematical formulas scare you You can do without them Read on and you will understand because it is a theory of reality

Discourse and the Other W. Lawrence Hogue,1986-11-25 The central thesis of Lawrence Hogue's book is that criticism of Afro American literature has left out of account the way in which ideological pressures dictate the canon This fresh approach to the study of the social ideological and political dynamics of the Afro American literary text in the twentieth century based on the Foucauldian concept of literature as social institution examines the universalization that power effects how literary texts are appropriated to meet ideological concerns and needs and the continued oppression of dissenting voices Hogue presents an illuminating discussion of the publication and review history of major and neglected texts He illustrates the acceptance of texts as exotica as sociological documents or as carriers of sufficient literary conventions to receive approbation Although the sixties movement allowed the text to move to the periphery of the dominant ideology providing some new myths about the Afro American historical past this marginal position was subsequently sabotaged co-opted or appropriated Afros became a fad presidents gave the soul handshake the hip talking black was dressing one style and talking another This study includes extended discussion of four works Ernest J Gaines's The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman Alice Walker's The Third Life of Grange Copeland Albert Murray's Train Whistle Guitar and Toni Morrison's Sula Hogue assesses the informing worldviews of each and the extent and nature of their acceptance by the dominant American cultural apparatus

Confucianisms for a Changing World Cultural Order Roger T. Ames, Peter D. Hershock,2018-03-31 In a single generation the rise of Asia has precipitated a dramatic sea change in the world's economic and political orders This reconfiguration is taking place amidst a host of deepening global predicaments including climate change migration increasing inequalities of wealth and opportunity that cannot be resolved by purely technical means or by seeking recourse in a liberalism that has of late proven to be less than effective The present work critically explores how the pan Asian phenomenon of Confucianism offers alternative values and depths of ethical commitment that cross national and cultural boundaries to provide a new response to these challenges When searching for resources to respond to the world's problems we tend to look to those that are most familiar Single actors pursuing their own self interests in competition or collaboration with other players As is now widely appreciated Confucian culture celebrates the relational values of deference and interdependence that is relationally constituted persons are understood as embedded in and nurtured by unique transactional patterns of relations This is a concept of person that contrasts starkly with the discrete self determining individual an artifact of eighteenth and nineteenth century Western European approaches to modernization that has become closely associated with liberal democracy Examining the meaning and value of Confucianism in the twenty first century the contributors leading scholars from universities around the world wrestle with several key questions What are Confucian values within the context of the disparate cultures of China Japan Korea and Vietnam What is their current significance What are the limits and historical failings of Confucianism and how are these to be critically addressed How must Confucian culture be reformed if it is to become relevant as an international resource for positive change Their answers vary but all agree that only a vital and critical Confucianism will have relevance for an emerging world cultural order
