Victorian Children:

British Children's Literature of the 19th Century Patrick C. Fleming, 2025-02-27 Many beloved classics of children's literature including Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, Peter Pan, and The Tale of Peter Rabbit were written at the end of the nineteenth century, an era known as the Golden Age of children's literature. Notable figures like William Godwin, Harriet Martineau, Christina Rossetti, and Charles Dickens contributed to children's literature, while juvenile periodicals first appeared to young readers during this time. This is the first comprehensive reference work about the Golden Age of children's literature and the emergence of juvenile literature as a major publishing phenomenon. Alphabetical entries include foundational figures like Sarah Trimmer, Maria Edgeworth, and Mary Martha Sherwood, who helped establish the market for children's literature. New genres for the time, like the moral tale, religious fiction, children's poetry, school stories, and prolific authors like Hesba Stretton, L. T. Meade, and G. A. Henty, are also included. The Place of Lewis Carroll in Children's Literature Jan Susina, 2013-02-01 In this volume, Jan Susina examines the importance of Lewis Carroll and his popular Alice books to the field of children's literature. From a study of Carroll's juvenilia to contemporary multimedia adaptations of Wonderland, Susina shows how the Alice books fit into the tradition of literary fairy tales and continue to influence children's writers. In addition to examining Carroll's books for children, these essays also explore his photographs of children, his letters to children, his ill-fated attempt to write for a dual audience of children and adults, and his lasting contributions to publishing. The book addresses the important but overlooked facet of Carroll's career as an astute entrepreneur who carefully developed an extensive Alice industry of books and non-book items based on the success of Wonderland, while rigorously defending his reputation as the originator of his distinctive style of children's stories. History in Action 5 Karen Cooksey, 2004-11 Instant lesson plans with teacher notes on differentiation and engaging, copiable activities for pupils. Book 5 concentrates on popular topics for ages 9 to 11, matching the QCA Scheme of Work for History and meeting NC requirements. More topics for 9 to 11 year olds are covered in Book 6. People and Places Laurie Triefeldt, 2007-10 People Places is a special collection from the World of Wonder series. World of Wonder is a weekly illustrated, full-page feature syndicated in over 100 newspapers nationwide. Devoted to exploring educational themes and examining the realms of history, science, nature, and technology, it is written in a reader-friendly style and accompanied by colorful illustrations. This collection gives the reader a wealth of information on everything from Angkor to Dracula. The Child, 1920 An International Year Book of Child Care and Protection, 1924 The Routledge Circus Studies Reader Peta Tait, Katie Lavers, 2020-09-10 The Routledge Circus Studies Reader offers an absorbing critical introduction to this diverse and emerging field. It brings together the work of over 30 scholars in this discipline, including Janet Davis, Helen Stoddart, and Peta Tait, to highlight and address the field's key historical, critical, and theoretical issues.
