Victorian Schools A Study In Colonial Go:

Colonial Legacies And Contemporary Studies Of China And Chineseness: Unlearning Binaries, Strategizing Self Chih-yu Shih, Prapin Manomaivibool, Mariko Tanigaki, Swaran Singh, 2020-02-04 Colonial legacies in knowledge production affect the way the world is represented and understood today However the subject is rarely attended The book Colonial Legacies and Contemporary Studies of China and Chineseness Unlearning Binaries Strategizing Self is about the colonial construction of intellectual perspectives of the colonized population in terms of the latter's approach to China and Chineseness in the modern world Relying on the available oral histories of senior China scholars primarily in Asia authors from various postcolonial and colonial sites present these multiple routes of self constitution and reconstitution through the use of China and Chineseness as category The revealed manipulation of this third category romantically as well as antagonistically is easier than straightforward self reflection for us all to accept that coming to identities and relations none even subaltern is politically innocent or capable of epistemological monopoly Through comparative studies it shows a way of self understanding that does not always require discursive construction of border or cultural consumption of any specific other With US China rivalry possibly lasting for decades this book offers extremely rich and contrasting practices from the subaltern worlds for anyone in a quest for humanist alternatives This interdisciplinary and transnational project contributes to post colonial studies cultural studies international relations China and Chinese studies and the comparative histories of East Asia Southeast Asia and South Asia

Going to School in Oceania Craig Campbell, Geoffrey Sherington, 2007-10-30 The history and current practices for school systems in the countries of the Oceanic region depend on the economic political and cultural circumstances of their countries Divided into four chronological sections pre nineteenth century nineteenth century twentieth century and present times each chapter traces the factors that have impacted educational philosophy and goals for each country Identifying available options for students of all economic backgrounds each chapter also includes a Day in the Life feature that shares with readers what a typical student in that country will experience at their school Australia Fiji New Zealand Papua New Guinea Samoa

India Goes to School Shivali Tukdeo, 2019-11-17 This book pays attention to education in India as part of several overlapping stories developed along different axes stories of dissent contestations appropriation and social action It historicises the enterprise of formal education by paying attention to the numerous policy shifts Further it theorises the education policy discourse by analysing the ways in which education is increasingly being shaped by international transnational knowledge production actors and norms Focusing on the cultural politics of education policy production circulation and translation across different contexts the book revisits some of the long standing and unresolved debates on social reforms justice nationalism and mobility Evolution of ideas such as mass education national education adult literacy and education through public private partnerships showcase the momentous shifts in education policy over the course of last century Ideas institutional and economic arrangements administrative formulations and frameworks for implementation make frequent appearances in the cultural as well as political reading of education policy. In a departure from the traditional policy research this work sees policy as socially and culturally constructed connected to questions of power context and struggle and part of a number of processes at large.
