The Crystal Desert:

The Crystal Desert David G. Campbell, 2021-05-12 The acclaimed author and biologist shares a superb personal account of Antarctica a remarkable evocation of a land at the bottom of the world Boston Globe During the 1980s biologist David Campbell spent three summers in Antarctica researching its surprisingly plentiful wildlife In The Crystal Desert he combines travelogue nature writing and science history to tell the story of life's tenacity on the coldest of Earth's continents Between scuba expeditions in Admiralty Bay Campbell remembers the explorers who discovered Antarctica the whalers and sealers who despoiled it and the scientists who laid the groundwork to decipher its mysteries Chronicling the desperately short summers in beautiful lucid prose he presents a fascinating portrait of the evolution of life in Antarctica and of the continent itself Winner of the John Burroughs Medal for Natural History Writing and a Houghton Mifflin Literary Fellowship

The Crystal Desert Julia Gray, 2001-12-06 THE CRYSTAL DESERT is the third book in the Guardian Cycle a sweeping fantasy epic from one of the best new storytellers in the genre Terrel's destiny is far from clear In exile from his home he journeys through a hostile world with only the spirits from an earlier life and his instincts to guide him Having crossed two oceans Terrel finds himself in Misrah A harsh and barren desert land survival there is a daily struggle for its nomadic tribes But Misrah is also a place of many wonders where superstition is as important as the constant search for water For Terrel his magical talents may be all that can save him And lead him one step closer to discovering the truth of the mysterious prophecies in the Tindaya Code For more information on this or any other Orbit book visit the Orbit website at www.orbitbooks.co.uk
