Third World Liberation Theologies Deane William Ferm, 1956      Third World Liberation Theologies Deane W. Ferm, 2004-04-15 Here for the first time is a systematic survey of the principal liberation theologians from Asia Africa and Latin America Exposing the rich variety of Third World liberation theologies the author highlights points of agreement and divergence in approaches and context and critically assesses the most often heard criticisms of liberation theology With its companion volume Third World Liberation Theologies A Reader this survey represents the most comprehensive introduction in any language to what may well be the most significant theological development of this century      Profiles in Liberation Deane W. Ferm, 2004-02-05 Liberation theology has emerged in recent years as one of the most controversial and significant developments in the global church In this concise but comprehensive volume readers will meet 36 of the most prominent liberation theologians from Asia Africa and Latin America Building on his vast research extensive correspondence and in depth interviews Deane William Ferm creates vibrant biographical portraits of these colorful and committed voices who address a theology for today s world Latin America Hugo Assmann Clodovis Boff Jose Miguez Bonino Ernesto Cardenal Jose Comblin Enrique Dussel Segundo Galilea Gustavo Gutierrez Joao Batista Libanio Otto Maduro Jose Porfirio Miranda Pablo Richard Juan Luis Segundo Jon Sobrino Elsa Tamez Africa Kofi Appiah Kubi Allan Boesak Manas Buthelezi Kwesi A Dickson Edward W Fashole Luke John S Mbiti Emmanuel Milingo Engelbert Mveng Charles Nyamiti Mercy Amba Oduyoye Aylward Shorter Desmond Tutu Asia Carlos H Abesamis Ahn Byung mu Tissa Balasuriya Kosuke Koyama Geevarghese Mar Osthathios Aloysius Pieris Samuel Rayan Choan Seng Song      Third World Liberation Theologies Deane William Ferm, 1986      The People and the People of God Hans Ucko, 2002 The Jewish Christian dialogue continues to be a challenge for Christian theology calling for a rethinking of Christian hermeneutics Hans Ucko widens the arena for Jewish Christian dialogue and proposes a constructive interaction between contextual theologies and Jewish Christian dialogue Minjung theology from South Korea and Dalit theology from India have creatively worked with the concepts people peoplehood and People of God The Jewish Christian dialogue has likewise delved into the question of People of God An encounter between these two worlds might be mutually enriching and challenging      Introducing Christian Ethics Samuel Wells, Ben Quash, 2017-05-08 Introducing Christian Ethics 2e now thoroughly revised and updated offers an unparalleled introduction to the study of Christian Ethics mapping and exploring all the major ethical approaches and offering thoughtful insights into the complex moral challenges facing people today This highly successful text has been thoughtfully updated based on considerable feedback to include increased material on Catholic perspectives further case studies and the augmented use of introductions and summaries Uniquely redefines the field of Christian ethics along three strands universal ethics for anyone subversive ethics for the excluded and ecclesial ethics for the church Encompasses Christian ethics in its entirety offering students a substantial overview by re mapping the field and exploring the differences in various ethical approaches Provides a successful balance between description analysis and critique Structured so that it can be used alongside a companion volume Christian Ethics An Introductory Reader which further illustrates and amplifies the diversity of material and arguments explored here Transforming Faith Communities Michael I. Bochenski,2013-03-14 Transforming Faith Communities argues for a model of being church that combines congregationalism with a constructive approach to church state relationships Congregationalism within a vision for a renewed Christendom is commended here as a viable option for Christian mission in the twenty first century world In making this case two movements are explored those inspired by sixteenth century Anabaptism and late twentieth century Latin American liberation theology Each movement is held up as a mirror to the other A continuing vision for the transformation of church and society emerges from this book as a number of contemporary resonances begin to sound These include an outline of some likely common features in the development of radical religious communities an examination of some of the factors that create world affirming Christian faith communities and many examples of effective and constructive engagement with church and society across the centuries The Donghak Concept of God/heaven Kiyul Chung,2007 Original Scholarly Monograph The World & I ,1988 The Encycloedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth Missionalia ,2005 Contains abstracts of missiological contributions book reviews and articles Catholicism Richard P. McBrien,2013-05-28 A new study edition of the classic that has sold over 150 000 copies Religious Education Encounters Liberation Theology Daniel S. Schipani,1988 Gregorianum ,1994 Missiology ,1992 An international review ADRIS Newsletter ,1984 The Liberative Mission of the Church Among Dalit Christians L. Stanislaus,1999 Study with reference to Tamil Nadu India The Character of Our Communities Gloria H. Albrecht,1995 The emphasis on rugged individualism which is so thoroughly a part of American culture has come under scrutiny and criticism from a number of sides recently Many have sought to reclaim a sense of community as the source of meaning and value in human life In the theological realm thinkers such as Stanley Hauerwas have asserted that Christian faith is necessarily communitarian in nature These theologians have argued that being a Christian means not simply encountering the divine within the privacy of the individual heart but investing one s loyalty in a particular community of faith leaning its shared narratives and being apprenticed to its specific religious practices Gloria Albrecht who shares this rejection of American hyperindividualism questions whether the communities Hauerwas and others envision are or even can be liberative for those who have been marginalized by the rest of society She applauds the concern that Christians be shaped not by the values of the wider society but by the distinctive stories and perspectives of concrete worshiping communities Yet she asks a trenchant question Who is telling these stories Are they told in such a way as to subvert or support the predominant culture s denigration of certain of its members to second and third class status In spite of their intention to be countercultural Albrecht contends that the communities which these theologians conceive are in danger of adopting the very hierarchical character that defines the society at large She insists that if our communities are to be the visible signs of the sovereign rule of God they claim to be they must be characterized by inclusiveness and diversity African Christianity Ogbu Kalu,2007 It is ideologically driven to build a group of church historians who will tell the story of African Christianity not Christianity in Africa as an African story by intentionally privileging the patterns of African agency without neglecting the noble roles played by missionaries The effort has been to identify the major themes or story lines in African encounters and in the appropriation of the gospel from publisher description Third World Resources ,1985
