Truman Nelson William J. Schafer, 1976 The Fate of Transcendentalism Bruce A. Ronda, 2017-10-15 The Fate of Transcendentalism examines the mid nineteenth century flowering of American transcendentalism and shows the movement's influence on several subsequent writers thinkers and artists who have drawn inspiration and energy from the creative outpouring it produced In this wide ranging study Bruce A Ronda offers an account of the movement as an early example of the secular turn in American culture and brings to bear insights from philosopher Charles Taylor and others who have studied the broad cultural phenomenon of secularization Ronda's account turns on the interplay and tension between two strands in the transcendentalist movement Many of the social experiments associated with transcendentalism such as the Brook Farm and Fruitlands reform communities Temple School and the West Street Bookshop as well as the transcendentalists contributions to abolition and women s rights spring from a commitment to human flourishing without reference to a larger religious worldview Other aspects of the movement particularly Henry Thoreau s late nature writing and the rich tradition it has inspired seek to minimize the difference between the material and the ideal the human and the not human The Fate of Transcendentalism allows readers to engage with this fascinating dialogue between transcendentalist thinkers who believe that the ultimate end of human life is the fulfillment of human possibility and others who challenge human centeredness in favor a relocation of humanity in a vital cosmos Ronda traces the persistence of transcendentalism in the work of several representative twentieth and twenty first century figures including Charles Ives Joseph Cornell Truman Nelson Annie Dillard and Mary Oliver and shows how this dialogue continues to inform important imaginative work to this date Left Curve ,1991 Truman Nelson Ann L. Jones,1983 This is a cassette tape and a paper based on an interview of Truman Nelson Newburyport author by Ann L Jones for her 1983 project for Lesley College New World Review ,1963
