Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies
