Labbé, Jonathan Lurie, 2003 The rough and tumble world of nineteenth century New Orleans was a sanitation night mare with the city's many slaughterhouses dumping animal remains into neighboring backwaters When Louisiana finally authorized a monopoly slaughterhouse to bring about sanitation reform many butchers felt disenfranchised from their livelihoods Framing their case as an infringement of fundamental rights protected by the new amendment they flooded the lower courts with nearly 300 suits The surviving cases that reached the U S Supreme Court pitted the butchers right to labor against the state's police power to regulate public health The result was a controversial and long debated decision that for the first time addressed the meaning the import of the Fourteenth Amendment The Sanitarian, 1875 Live, Die, Buy, Eat Kristian Bjørkdahl, Karen V. Lykke, 2022-11-22 Live Die Buy Eat These words represent a chain of events which today is disconnected In the past few years controversies around meat have arisen around industrialization and globalization of meat production often pivoting around health environmental issues and animal welfare Although meat increasingly figures as a problem most consumers knowledge of animal husbandry and meat production is more absent than ever Tracing a historical process of alienation along three distinct axes the authors show how the animal origin of meat is covered up rationalized forgotten excused neglected and denied How is meat produced today and where How do we consume meat and how have our consumption habits changed Why have these changes occurred and what are the social and cultural consequences of these changes Using Norway as a case study this book examines the dramatic changes in meat production and consumption over the last 150 years With a wide range of historical sources together with interviews and observation at farms slaughterhouses and production units as well as analyses of contemporary texts and digital sources Live Die Buy Eat explores the transformation of animal husbandry meat production and consumption together with its cultural consequences It will appeal to scholars of anthropology sociology cultural studies geography and history with an interest in food agriculture environment and culture
