Slave The:

Byzantine Slavery and the Mediterranean World Youval Rotman, 2009 Looking at the Byzantine concept of slavery within the context of law the labour market medieval politics and religion the author illustrates how these contexts both reshaped and sustained the slave market

The Slave's Narrative Henry Louis Gates, 1985 The autobiographical narratives of black ex slaves published in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries constitute the largest body of literature produced by slaves in human history Black slaves in the New World created a veritable literature of escape depicting the overwhelming horrors of human bondage These narratives served the abolitionist movement not only as evidence of the slaves degradation but also of their intellectual capacity Accordingly this literature has elicited a wealth of analysis and controversy from its initial publication right up to our day This volume charts the response to the black slave s narrative from 1750 to the present The book consists of three sections selected reviews of slave narratives dating from 1750 to 1861 essays examining how such narratives serve as historical material and essays exploring the narratives as literary artifacts
