The Need:

The Need For Health Care W.R. Sheaff,2002-09-11 The rhetoric of needs has been used to legitimate all major turns in UK health policy since 1936 This study identifies the ethical policy and technical issues arising from the concept of needs In the first part a theory of needs is developed which takes into account both the philosophical traditions and the practical problems arising in daily health care In a second part health systems throughout the world are described and compared addressing ethical as well as economical questions Its interdisciplinary approach will make The Need for Healthcare important reading not only for those interested in or employed in the health care sector but also for students of philosophy

Professional Power and the Need for Health Care Ian Reese Jones,2018-12-20 First published in 1999 this volume discusses how the nursing and health care fields are developing rapidly This series of monographs offers up to date reports of recently completed research projects in the fields of nursing and health care The aim of the series is to report studies that have relevance to contemporary nursing and health care practice It includes reports of research into aspects of clinical nursing care management and education The series is of interest to all nurses and health care workers researchers managers and educators in the field
