Report of the International Polar Expedition to Point Barrow, Alaska, 1886 Outcomes of the UN Rio+20 Earth Summit Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee, 2013-06-14 This report highlights the commitments for the UK from the conclusions agreed in the Rio 20 Summit It was regretted that the Deputy Prime Minister declined to give evidence It was also regretted that the Prime Minister did not attend the Rio 20 Summit His absence undermined the Government's attempts to demonstrate its commitment to the sustainable development agenda not just internationally but also at home in the UK The conclusions of the Summit itself disappointed many with a lack of concrete agreement on key areas On the other hand many welcomed the firm commitment to develop new Sustainable Development

Goals The development of the SDGs and the Post 2015 Development Goals should be carried out jointly The Prime Minister should take advantage of his position as co chair of that High Level Panel to continue to push for integration of sustainable development targets with poverty eradication and climate change targets Permanent mechanisms should be established to continue engagement with a wider range of NGOs and businesses and examine the scope for introducing wider ranging sustainability reporting for the private sector New Sustainable Development Indicators which will complement such Government reporting will reflect our call for emissions Indicators to be on a consumption rather than just a production basis The Summit included commitments on education and the Government should remind schools of the scope for addressing sustainable development in their learning plans Alongside this report the Committee s scrutiny of the Government s progress in embedding sustainable development in its own policies and programmes is also being published HC 202 session 2013 14 ISBN 9780215058911 Memoirs of the National Academy of Sciences, 1886 Queen Esther John Irving, 2025-11-04

Hard Rain Alessandro Portelli, 2022-05-17 Bob Dylan s iconic 1962 song A Hard Rain s A Gonna Fall stands at the crossroads of musical and literary traditions A visionary warning of impending apocalypse it sets symbolist imagery within a structure that recalls a centuries old form Written at the height of the 1960s folk music revival amid the ferment of political activism the song strongly resembles and at the same time reimagines a traditional European ballad sung from Scotland to Italy known in the English speaking world as Lord Randal Alessandro Portelli explores the power and resonance of A Hard Rain s A Gonna Fall considering the meanings of history and memory in folk cultures and in Dylan s work He examines how the ballad tradition to which Lord Randal belongs shaped Dylan s song and how Dylan drew on oral culture to depict the fears and crises of his own era Portelli recasts the song as an encounter between Dylan s despairing vision which questions the meaning and direction of history and the message of resilience and hope for survival despite history s nightmares found in oral traditions A wide ranging work of oral history Hard Rain weaves together interviews from places as varied as Italy

England and India with Portelli's autobiographical reflections and critical analysis speaking to the enduring appeal of Dylan's music. By exploring the motley traditions that shaped Dylan's work, this book casts the distinctiveness and depth of his songwriting in a new light.

Political Protest and Cultural Revolution Barbara Epstein, 1993-09-03. From her perspective as both participant and observer, Barbara Epstein examines the nonviolent direct action movement which inspired by the civil rights movement flourished in the United States from the mid-seventies to the mid-eighties. Disenchanted with the politics of both the mainstream and the organized left and deeply committed to forging communities based on shared values, activists in this movement developed a fresh philosophy and style of politics that shaped the thinking of a new generation of activists. Driven by a vision of an ecologically balanced, nonviolent, egalitarian society, they engaged in political action through affinity groups, made decisions by consensus, and practiced mass civil disobedience. The nonviolent direct action movement galvanized originally in opposition to nuclear power with the Clamshell Alliance in New England and then the Abalone Alliance in California, leading the way. Its influence soon spread to other activist movements for peace, non-intervention, ecological preservation, feminism, and gay and lesbian rights. Epstein joined the San Francisco Bay Area's Livermore Action Group to protest the arms race and found herself in jail along with a thousand other activists for blocking the road in front of the Lawrence Livermore Laboratory. She argues that to gain a real understanding of the direct action movement, it is necessary to view it from the inside. For, with its aim to base society as a whole on principles of egalitarianism and nonviolence, the movement sought to turn political protest into cultural revolution.
