Teaching Counselors and Therapists Karen Eriksen,Garrett McAuliffe,2001-08-30 A guide to innovative mental health education is urgently needed Despite the hundreds of programs in existence for training students in counseling human service social work and psychology teachers in such programs have relied on an informal network of information exchange to guide their teaching practice Yet constructivist and developmental theories now point to sound innovative practices for teaching This volume delineates those practices Despite years of research on effective adult education university teaching fails in practice to incorporate research supported teaching principles Current university instruction is still dominated by the teacher as authority The teacher downloads information from the front of the class and expects students to regurgitate it in papers and on exams The authors offer a different vision of classrooms that are characterized by the themes of meaning making collaboration equality and activity in the learning environment Social Casework Methodology: A Skills Handbook for the Caribbean Human Services Worker Emmanuel Janagan Johnson,Camille L. Huggins,2019-10-11 This brief is a practical reference contextualizing social casework methodology in a specifically Caribbean cultural and historical context It emerged from the experiences of human services workers and educators working in the Caribbean The concepts of social welfare policy and programs are relatively new to the Caribbean as historically Christian based organizations and local communities took the responsibility of caring for those in need As social problems grew more complicated and threatened the security of the nation e g gang violence it became clear that governments of these small island states needed to provide a systematic approach in dealing with these social problems to help their citizens have a better quality of life Social Casework Methodology A Skills Handbook for the Caribbean Human Services Worker outlines a systematic approach that human services workers will find useful while working with clients in the Caribbean It also is an easy to use text that defines social casework methodology components of the methods case histories and exercises for social work students interested in working in the human services sector in the Caribbean Careers Counselling in Practice Ben Ball,2024-11-01 First published in 1984 Careers Counselling in Practice is intended as a practical guide and a review of developments in careers work It surveys careers counselling and guidance practice in schools colleges and universities as well as work done outside the educational field by vocational guidance agencies The book draws freely on examples of guidance practice and in particular makes mention of trends in American careers education and guidance In reviewing transition agencies and services it argues firmly for an educational rationale for careers work and counselling rather than a guidance model based on state employment agencies This is an important reference work for career counsellors educationists and policy makers
