Harvard University,1927 Sounding the Classics Rudolph Binion,1997-08-26 This book is a comparative study of 12 works of fiction broadly representative of the Western canon Its aim is to discover what gives these 12 works their lasting appeal and vitality over and beyond their formal qualities It focuses on the interplay of text and subtext within each work after defining these terms at the outset It then compares its 12 sample classics systematically in a conclusion that argues from the works themselves to classics in general Binion s key finding is that for a piece of fiction to feel deep whole and great as classics do its text must be underpinned from start to finish by a subtext or alternative reading which calls that text itself into
