Still Falls The Rain

Still falls the Rain—

Dark as the world of man, black as our feet—

Blind as the nineteen hundred and forty nails

Upon the Cross.

Still falls the Rain

With a sound like the pulse of the heart that is changed to the hammer-beat

In the Potter's Field, and the sound of the impious feet.

On the Tomb:

Still falls the Rain

In the Field of Blood where the small hopes breed and the human brain

Nurtures its greed, that worms with the brow of Cain.

Still falls the Rain

At the feet of the Starved Man hung upon the Cross.

Christ that each day, each night, nails there, have mercy on us—

On Dives and on Lazarus:

Under the Rain the sore and the gold are as one.

Still falls the Rain—

Still falls the Blood from the Starved Man's wounded Side:

He bears in His Heart all wounds,—these of the light that died,

The last faint spark

In the self-murdered heart, the wounds of the sad uncomprehending dark,

The wounds of the boiled bear—

The blind and weeping bear whom the keepers beat

On his helpless flesh... the tears of the hunted hare.

THE RAIN STILL FALLS IN SAIGON PHONG THU,2011-05-17 This book is a collection of stories that portray life as it is lived today under the shadow of the repressive and corrupt communist regime that now rules in Vietnam The characters who live in these pages represent many levels of social class in the early 21st century in Vietnam The stories illuminate the hardships and the soul crushing routine of day to day life in a society governed by bullying bureaucrats and petty apparatchiks The reader will meet orphaned children who wander the streets selling newspapers or lottery tickets collecting rubbish in exchange for a few spoonfuls of rice There are stories of honest and patriotic intellectuals who have lost their way in a world that does not value their accomplishments There are also sympathetic communists who now question their ideology and want to find a better way but they cannot act for fear of economic hardship and even imprisonment Another story addresses the issue of young women who have become victims of human trafficking sold like cattle to rich foreigners The title story The Rain still Falls in Saigon describes the return of an expatriate to her native land and her feelings of nostalgia and sadness as she surveys her homeland from an outsider s perspective All of the stories reflect the tears that the Vietnamese people have been crying for their country for more than 65 years Doug Burke Editor at large
