Still Life With A Bridle:

Still Life with a Bridle Zbigniew Herbert, 1994-08-18 Still Life with a Bridle Zbigniew Herbert, John Carpenter, 1993-01 The author of this book travelled to Holland from his native Poland to explore the history of Dutch life in the 17th century The 16 prose pieces that make up this book reveal the author's discriminating artistic eye and poetic sensibility one that revels in irony humour and a satirist's appreciation of the absurd An inveterate museum goer he focuses on the art of the period using it as a stepping stone point for an individual examination of the foibles genius and character of the Dutch people as a whole STILL LIFE W/BRIDLE Herbert Z, 1999-12-10 In Still Life with a Bridle poet and essayist Zbigniew Herbert takes an intriguing look at the cultural artistic and aesthetic legacy of 17th century Holland These sixteen essays reveal Herbert's discriminating artistic eye and poetic sensibility one that revels in irony humor and a satirist's appreciation of the absurd An inveterate museum goer he focuses on the art of the Dutch masters using it as a stepping off point for a thoroughly individual and entertaining examination of the foibles genius and character of the Dutch people as a whole The result is an unorthodox and revealing glimpse into the past that gives us a keener understanding not only of a distant people but of ourselves as well Still Life with a Bridle Zbigniew Herbert, 2010-01-01 Through the Poet's Eye Bozena Shallcross, 2009-02-20 Though best known as poets Adam Zagajewski born 1945 Zbigniew Herbert 1924-98 and Joseph Brodsky 1940-96 wrote some of the most original prose of this century It is this prose remarkable for its cross cultural complexity and interdisciplinary richness that concerns Bozena Shallcross in Through the Poet's Eye The travels undertaken by these Eastern European poets who each journeyed to the West under different circumstances give Shallcross her point of departure as she explores the connections between the sensory experience of travel and the revelatory perception of the visual arts manifest in their writings Book Jacket The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers

Dawn of the Golden Age Wouter T. Kloek, Rijksmuseum (Amsterdam, Pays-Bas), Rijksmuseum (Netherlands), J.

Bruyn, Hessel Miedema, Christian Schuckman, 1993-01-01 Designed as a catalogue for an exhibition at the Rijksmuseum in 1994 this offers a survey of the paintings drawings prints sculpture and applied art produced 1580 1620 The book contains five essays followed by a catalogue which reproduces work from the era along with data on the artists Indiana Slavic Studies, 1998 The Other Herbert Božena Shallcross, 1998 At the Threshold of Mystery Ewa Borkowska, 2005 The book At the Threshold of Mystery Poetic Encounters with Otherness addresses the problem of literary dialogue as it appears in the philosophical poetic and aesthetic discourses in the last two centuries Central to the dialogue with Otherness is a background discussion of the idea of friendship as an encounter with another individual with another man with God or gods and also with another culture the issues present in Emmanuel Levinas's ethical philosophy Merleau-Ponty's concept of intersubjectivity becomes a crucial point in the creative construction of the philosophy of dialogue whose ideological antecedents date back to the times of Plato At the border of language or at the threshold of mystery there crowds what is metaphysically arcane or immediate that which signals the other the out there The central idea which this book examines is how to reconcile the hermetically sealed historical past with modern times in order to inaugurate the genuine philosophy of dialogue It is the author's strong belief that by interrupting totality the poetic work which often turns into the prophetic signature or voice the trace of otherness seems to give testimony to the primordial experience so essential for the birth of poetry The poetic examples of the mysterious encounters with Otherness are selected each in its most idiosyncratic way from Gerard Manley Hopkins Rainer Maria Rilke Paul Celan Seamus Heaney and two Polish poets Zbigniew Herbert and Adam Zagajewski but also from Walter Pater's aesthetic epiphanies The New Yorker, 1991 The Art of Arts Anita Albus, 2000 There was a time five hundred years ago when science was regarded as an art and art as a science And in the contest between the senses the ear through which we had previously received all knowledge and the word of God was conquered by the eye which would henceforth be king A new breed of painters aimed to reconcile the world of the senses with that of the mind and their goal was to conceal themselves in the details and vanish away like God A new way of perceiving was born Anita Albus describes the birth and evolution of trompe l'oeil painting in oils in the fifteenth sixteenth and seventeenth centuries focusing her attention on works by northern European artists both major and minor As a scholar she stands in the tradition of Panofsky as a painter she is able to see things others have not yet perceived as a storyteller she skillfully describes abstract notions in a vivid and exciting way Like the multilayered technique of the Old Masters her method assumes an ability to distinguish between the different levels as well as a talent for synthesizing them The first part of the book is devoted to the visibility of the invisible in the art of Jan van Eyck his visual effects perspective artistic technique and philosophy The second and third parts are taken up with descriptions of the genres of forest landscape still life and forest floor In the midst of butterflies bumblebees and dragonflies Vladimir Nabokov emerges as final witness to the survival in literature of all that was condemned to vanish from the fine arts After a glimpse into the continuing presence of the past and some conjectures as to the future the book s final part throws fresh light on the colored grains of the hand ground pigments that were lost when artists materials began to be commercially manufactured in the nineteenth century The Art of Arts is thus both a dazzling cultural history and the story of two explosive inventions the so called third dimension of space through perspective and the shockingly vivid colors of revolutionary oil paints Albus makes abundantly clear how taken together these breakthroughs not only created a new art but altered forever our perception of the world Antæus Daniel Halpern, 1992 Bringing together 22 writers to discuss eating as more than simple sustenance editor Daniel Halpern writes in his introduction this collection is about eating our slice of daily bread but not for the intake of that slice alone In the Space of Arts Ewa Borkowska, 2004 The Cumulative Book Index, 1992 A world list of books in the English language Responsive Reading Edward Hirsch, 1999 Collects prose that crosses geographic historical and linguistic borders engaging literature as an international activity "Aberdeen Journal" Notes and Queries, 1910 Unbeaten Tracks in Japan Isabella Lucy Bird, 1900 Antæus Daniel Halpern, 1992-04
