Tales From The Country:

Tales of the Country Brian Viner, 2005 Brian Viner and his family had enjoyed much about their nice little middle class patch of north London but gradually realised they were suffering from a severe case of metropause the desire to swap the hassles of London life for the serenity of the countryside After a long search they found the house of their dreams in rural Herefordshire But is country life all it s cracked up to be More importantly where does one go to get a decent cappuccino A Year in Provence with less sunshine but more laughs TALES OF THE COUNTRY is a wonderfully entertaining and heart warming account of the Viners adjustment from town to country Focusing on their first year in Herefordshire and the attendant misadventures with mice ponies and septic tanks not to mention some sceptical locals it is a terrific blend of humour and memoir Tales of a Country Mouse Barbra Ring, 1927 *Children of the Farm.
