The Arnhem Lift:

Arnhem Lift Louis Hagen, Winrich Behr, 1993 As an account of the battle as seen by one man and his close comrades this is excellent stuff Rusi Journal April 1994 Arnhem Lift Louis Hagen, 2011-11-30 Of the 10 000 men who landed at Arnhem over nine days 1 400 were killed and more than 6 000 about a third of them wounded were captured It was a bloody disaster The remarkable Louis Hagen an enemy alien who had escaped to England having been imprisoned and tortured in a Nazi concentration camp as a boy just a few years earlier was one of the minority who made it back What makes this book so unforgettable is not only the breathtaking drama of the story itself it is the unmistakable talent of the writer The narrative was first published anonymously in 1945 45 years later at a dinner party in Germany Louis Hagen met Major Winrich Behr Adjutant to Field Marshal Model at Arnhem Louis added his side of the story to add even more insight to the original work

Arnhem Lift Louis Hagen, 1953 Arnhem Lift Louis Hagen, 1977 Arnhem Lift Louis Edmund Hagen, 2012 First published by Pilot Press London 1945 Suddenly an Englishman LOUIS. HAGEN, 2024-12 The vivid and candid autobiography of Louis Hagen alongside his bestselling Arnhem Lift Arnhem Lift Louis Edmund Hagen, 1945

Arnhem Lift, 1945 Airmen of Arnhem Martin W. Bowman, 2020-01-19 A history of the airborne portion of Operation Market Garden during World War II from the perspective of the airmen fighting the battle Martin Bowman presents an unparalleled account of events as they unfolded in the skies above Holland during Operation Market Garden in September 1944 Market Garden was a heroic failure conducted at great cost combined losses both airborne and ground forces in killed wounded and missing amounted to more than 17 000 Market the airborne part of the operation spanned ten Allied lifts in a calamitous nine days of operations often in foul weather Over the course of Operation Market 4 050 aircraft saw employment most of them towed the 1 205 Hamilcar and Horsa gliders and were confronted by an unknown number of Luftwaffe aircraft This is narrative is punctuated with stories of individual heroism such as that of David Lord a RAF Dakota pilot who was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross There is no doubting the gallant and valorous contribution of the airmen of Arnhem the RAF Dakota Stirling Halifax Albemarle Horsa Hamilcar and Glider Pilot Regiment crews together with those of the USAAF C 47 Troop Carrier Groups of the IX U S Troop Carrier Command the Waco and Horsa gliders and the B 24 Liberator resupply crews All their incredible illuminating and often understated accounts of extraordinary courage camaraderie shared terror and encounters with the enemy offer a more personalized view of Market and are complemented by the author's background information that give an overall picture of each air operation Arnhem Lift Louis E. Hagen, 2011 The Long Road Oliver Clutton-Brock, Raymond Crompton, 2014-03-19 A history of the airmen imprisoned in Nazi Germany's largest World War II prisoner of war camp the notorious Stalag Luft 7 This book is firstly a testament to those of many nationalities who found themselves imprisoned at Stalag Luft VII Bankau Luft 7 for short in Upper Silesia the Luftwaffe's last prisoner of war camp Having survived the trauma of action against and capture by the enemy some as far back as 1940 they came from France the Low Countries Germany Norway Denmark Poland the Balkans Italy Hungary the Mediterranean and other seas and from North Africa Many of their experiences and adventures have never been documented before It is also the complete history of their prisoner of war POW camp Luft 7 told in full detail for the first time a camp that existed for barely thirty two weeks from its opening in early June 1944 to its closure in mid January 1945

The Build Up to the Beginning Martin W. Bowman,2013-01-19 This is the first volume of a most impressive tribute and accurate four part work that uniquely presents a complete account of the air operations throughout Market Garden in September 1944 when British US and Polish airborne troops made a gallant attempt to seize and hold bridges across the Lower Rhine in Holland as a springboard for crossing into Germany Market the aerial side of the proceedings was at the time the largest airborne operation in history In this unprecedented and insightful account the exploits of the First Allied Airborne Army are relayed in full detail supplemented with historical notes regarding the ground operations this is sure to offer an unparalleled account of the events as they unfolded in the skies above Holland If successful the war could be over by Christmas What could go wrong That it did and on such a massive scale is the underlying theme throughout this series The action was at times very confused so a narrative of events contained in sixteen timelines at intervals throughout this series cuts through the fog of battle to explain the situation from its over optimistic beginning to the tragic conclusion

Out of the Blue James A. Huston,1998 Beginning with a case study of the greatest airborne operation of the war the 1944 invasion of Holland Huston examines the inception organization training equipment strategies Allied cooperation and overall effectiveness of the airborne in the total war effort Operations in North Africa Sicily Italy Southern France the Pacific and the Far East are discussed No other book brings together as much information and documentation on the airborne Of special interest to the veterans who took part in the great paratroop and glider movements this book will become invaluable to students of aerial warfare and of World War II

Shrinking Perimeter Martin W. Bowman,2013-08-30 The third volume of this four part series on Operation Market Garden in September 1944 draws on many individual soldiers and airmen s narratives to tell the story of the ongoing fight to keep the Hell s Highway open to relieve 1st Airborne at Arnhem and the brave attempts to re supply them from the air As in previous volumes this account offers a unique perspective on all aspects of aerial activity during this pivotal operation This volume tells of the Allied effort to retain supremacy in the skies Individual tales of gallantry work to humanize the account rooting the action very much in the human experience of conflict Such tales include the never to be forgotten story of the Angel of Arnhem and the acts of chivalry that existed on both sides even among battle hardened units such as the SS Panzer Grenadiers All are unique in the annals of war These and the other personal recollections of Allied soldiers and airmen and their German adversaries tell of extreme courage camaraderie and shared terror under fire And they are complemented by the author s background information that puts each narrative into wartime perspective in the Liberation of Europe James Daly, 2024-10-30 The bitter fighting in the so called Falaise Argentan Pocket in August 1944 during which the Allies encircled and destroyed a substantial part of Hitler's forces in northern France following the D Day landings marked the last major battle of the Normandy campaign Despite this tens of thousands of German soldiers managed to escape through the infamous Falaise Gap It was as the Allies continued to pursue the retreating enemy forces that the planners considered or drew up a number of further airborne operations As James Daly reveals three operations namely Lucky Strike Transfigure and Axehead might well have been part of the last of the fighting in the breakout from Normandy itself The first of these Lucky Strike was intended to see General Montgomery's 21st Army Group strike to the north east in the direction of the River Seine where bridges near Rouen were to be taken by the British 1st Airborne Division Transfigure was to be a major operation with the aim of using the First Allied Airborne Army against the French road network with the object of cutting the German lines of retreat across the Seine Axehead meanwhile was a plan to establish an air head on the eastern bank of the Seine In this assault the British 1st Airborne Division along with infantry Sherman DD amphibious tanks and specialised engineers would establish crossings of the Dives Touques Risle and Seine rivers As the Allies advanced further east into the Low Countries further Allied airborne assaults were suggested In Operation Linnet for example airborne forces were to capture and hold Tournai on the Escaut river in the western part of German occupied Belgium In the event they were all cancelled usually as the Allied forces reached the intended dropping zones before the airborne forces could take off In particular several of these operations bear very strong resemblance to elements of the Market Garden plan and show early signs of the mistakes Operation Comet for example included a glider coup de main for the bridges at Arnhem Nijmegen and Grave why did this disappear for Market Garden These operations and their planning show that far from being an operation that went wrong in September 1944 the flaws in the Arnhem plan were evident much earlier They also show that divisions between the Allies emerged much earlier and ran much deeper than originally thought
