Scottish Philosophy in the Seventeenth Century Alexander Broadie,2020-02-27 During the seventeenth century Scots produced many high quality philosophical writings writings that were very much part of a wider European philosophical discourse Yet today Scottish philosophy of the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries is widely studied but that of the seventeenth century is only now beginning to receive the attention it deserves This volume begins by placing the seventeenth century Scottish philosophy in its political and religious contexts and then investigates the writings of the philosophers in the areas of logic metaphysics politics ethics law and religion It is demonstrated that in a variety of ways the Scottish Reformation impacted on the teaching of philosophy in the Scottish universities It is also shown that until the second half of the century and the arrival of Descartes on the Scottish philosophy curriculum the Scots were teaching and developing a form of Reformed orthodox scholastic philosophy a philosophy that shared many features with the scholastic Catholic philosophy of the medieval period By the early eighteenth century Scotland was well placed to give rise to the spectacular Enlightenment that then followed and to do so in large measure on the basis of its own well established intellectual resources Among the many thinkers discussed are Reformed orthodox Episcopalian and Catholics philosophers including George Robertson George Middleton John Boyd Robert Baron Mark Duncan Samuel Rutherford James Dundas first Lord Arniston George Mackenzie James Dalrymple Viscount Stair and William Chalmers Law and Opinion in Scotland during the Seventeenth Century John D Ford,2007-11-20 This book explores the relationship between the opinions of lawyers and the development of the law of Scotland after parliamentary union with England The Dean and Canons' Houses of St George's Chapel, Windsor John Crook,2022-12-02 The College of St George at Windsor Castle was founded by Edward III in 1348 to support the newly created Order of the Garter and to this day fulfills the same primary purpose The domestic buildings provided for the Warden Canons and Priest Vicars now the Deanery and Canons Cloister are an astonishing survival despite enlargement and alteration over the centuries a significant amount of the mid fourteenth century fabric survives though often hidden from view A recent program of refurbishment and conservation revealed much hitherto unknown evidence for the way the buildings were constructed their fittings and decoration and their subsequent evolution The author maintained a continuous watching brief throughout the refurbishment works the results of which are published here for the first time The archaeological evidence is supplemented by the excellent survival of documentation both for the initial construction of the buildings and their subsequent development we know the precise date of each stage of construction the cost and even the names of the workmen involved The post medieval history of the buildings is also highly significant and for this period we have the benefit of knowing more about the deans and canons who influenced the ways their dwellings developed and of a continued wealth of documentary evidence
