Premodern Ecologies in the Modern Literary Imagination Vin Nardizzi, Tiffany Jo Werth, 2019-04-18 Premodern Ecologies in the Modern Literary Imagination explores how the cognitive and physical landscapes in which scholars conduct research write and teach have shaped their understandings of medieval and Renaissance English literary ecologies The collection strives to practice what Ursula K Heise calls eco cosmopolitanism a method that imagines forms of local environmentalism as a defense against the interventions of open market global networks It also expands the idea s possibilities and identifies its limitations through critical studies of premodern texts artefacts and environmental history The essays connect real environments and their imaginative re creations and affirm the urgency of reorienting humanity s responsiveness to and responsibility for the historical links between human and non human existence The discussion of ways in which meditation on scholarly place and time can deepen ecocritical work offers an innovative and engaging approach that will appeal to both ecocritics generally and to medieval and early modern scholars

Shakespeare's Shrews Beatrice Righetti, 2024-12-12

Shakespeare's Shrews Italian Traditions of Paradoxes and the Woman's Debate investigates the echoes of two early modern discourses paradoxical writing and the woman's question or querelle des femmes in the representation of the Shakespearean shrew in The Taming of the Shrew Much Ado About Nothing and Othello This comparative cross cultural study explores the English reception of these traditions through the circulation translation and adaptation of Italian works such as Ludovico Ariosto's Orlando Furioso Baldassare Castiglione's Il libro del cortegiano and Ercole and Torquato Tasso's Dell'ammogliarsi The enticing interplay of these two discourses is further complicated by their presence in the writing of early modern male and female authors The examination of Shakespeare's adaptation of these traditions in his shrew character highlights two key findings the thematic fragmentation of the woman's question and the evolving role of paradoxes from figures of speech to figures of thought both influenced by the gender of the speaker
