Susan Kammeraad-Campbell

Stick Boy:

Lagoon Nnedi Okorafor, 2015-07-14 It's up to a famous rapper, a marine biologist, and a rogue soldier to handle humanity's first contact with an alien ambassador and prevent mass extinction in this novel that blends magical realism with high stakes action. After word gets out on the Internet that aliens have landed in the waters outside of the world's fifth most populous city, Lagos, Nigeria, chaos ensues. Soon the military, religious leaders, thieves, and crackpots are trying to control the message on YouTube and on the streets. Meanwhile, the earth's political superpowers are considering a preemptive nuclear launch to eradicate the intruders. All that stands between seventeen million anarchic residents and death is an alien ambassador, a biologist, a rapper, a soldier, and a myth that may be the size of a giant spider or a god revealed. Doc Susan Kammeraad-Campbell, 2005-02-15 Our role is to look at every student as an individual and to help him or her grow. That means not only educating them in the three Rs but teaching them how to think for themselves, make decisions, solve problems, and be ready for the world. This was new principal Dennis Littky's message to his staff at Thayer High School, the vision that would guide the rural school's journey from run-down district joke to national showplace. The unorthodox methods he championed, including integrated subject matter, team teaching, apprenticeship, advisories, and individualized curriculum, shook up the failing school and helped to transform a disaffected and dropout-prone student body into a proud and vibrant community of learners. In this book, the basis for the NBC TV movie A Town Torn Apart, Susan Kammeraad-Campbell shares the true story of Thayer's renaissance, the man who led it, and the extraordinary effect it had on tiny Winchester, New Hampshire. For educators eager to transform teaching and learning in their own schools, this behind-the-scenes perspective provides insights into the great challenge and even greater reward of educational reform done right. Susan Kammeraad-Campbell is an award-winning journalist who has worked for newspapers in the Midwest and New England, where she originally covered Littky's story for the Keene Sentinel. Currently, director of marketing publications for the Medical University of South Carolina, she is cofounder and publisher of Juggling Board Press. Note: This product listing is for the reflowable ePub version of the book. Mrs. McThing Mary Chase, 1954-10 THE STORY As told by Kerr, all happens very logically. A little girl has slipped past the gatekeeper and over the garden wall to play with a lonely and put-upon lad. She is quickly shooed out by his mother as trash.
