Mahogany Jim and the Nightcrawlers and Other Tales Ralph Maltese, 2016-10-26 Ralph Maltese was born in 1946 a propitious time for experiencing postwar euphoria Cold War angst civil rights protests and progress the Viet Nam war and anti war activism the rise of feminism and of course the Beatles In short Ralph s life represents and reflects the turmoil of a critical time in history and his writing makes that time come alive He was born in the Bronx where he lived until the age of 11 Ralph taught English for 38 years in the Abington School District In 2002 he earned Pennsylvania Teacher of the Year status trips to the White House as well as to Space Camp were highlights of his recognition but the most significant benefit was the opportunity to meet dedicated teachers from around the country and the world and to spread the gospel of quality teaching He is the author of two books about the art of teaching A Class Act and Project Based Learning 25 Projects for 21st Century Learning A lifelong reader and writer Ralph has distilled his childhood and adolescence into a memoir with his dad Mahogany Jim at the core of many adventures and many lessons These stories are not always happy go lucky carefree tales but they are true and meaningful and ultimately profound

Long Gun Logan Roberson, 2022-08-17 Long Gun By Logan Roberson Long Gun a Civil War veteran filled with justice and rage finds himself engulfed in a personal battle almost twenty years after the war s end Between shellshock a guilty conscience and a sense of justice to kill the man who murdered his brother Long Gun is being led down a dark path He is conflicted stuck in a time when justice was measured by raw emotions and longing to find peace Unsure of what to do with his life Long Gun roams the frontier doing his best to fight for the little guy and hunt down his enemies Now an aging middle aged man Long Gun is still living this life but after making new friends who decide he s more folktale hero than quick angry gunslinger the battle between killing for the dead and existing for the living comes to a climactic end Long Gun is a fun gritty tale full of gunfights horse chases and saloon brawls with an in depth look into the life of a larger than life figure and the human behind the legends *Report North Carolina. Ficonderoga; Or, the Black Eagle. A Tale of Times Not Long Past George Payne Rainsford James, 1854

The Life and Times of Ray Hicks Lynn Salsi, 2008 Renowned storyteller Ray Hicks was a certified national treasure He received many prestigious honors in his lifetime including the National Heritage Fellowship Award from the National Endowment for the Arts Best known for his traditional storytelling and also for saving the original Beech Mountain Jack tales brought to the Appalachian Mountains by his ancestors as early as 1776 Hicks was conscious of the role he played in the preservation of oral storytelling Many of those stories are included in The Life and Times of Ray Hicks Born in 1922 Ray lived his whole life in the Appalachian Mountains of North Carolina Although it finally got a refrigerator and electric lights Ray s place never did get a telephone indoor plumbing or a radio or television It seems he knew everything there was to know about living off the land and about his family's history. A lot of what he knew is in this new book. Hicks made his public storytelling debut in 1951 when a local schoolteacher invited him to her class. In 1973 Ray performed at the very first International Storytelling Festival in Jonesborough, Tennessee. He appeared at every one until he became too weak to attend. He died on Easter Sunday in 2003. Based on hundreds of hours of interviews and visits painstakingly pieced together by Lynn Salsi, The Life and Times of Ray Hicks comes as close as possible to capturing the way Ray talked. Part memoir and part biography, The Life and Times of Ray Hicks presents sometimes in Ray Hicks's own words the most important part of his long, colorful life, a life scarcely less interesting than the Jack Tales he told so well. Lynn Salsi is the author of several books, including The Jack Tales and Young Ray Hicks Learns the Jack Tales. She has received the American Library Association's Notable Book Award, six Willie Parker Peace History Book Awards, and was named the North Carolina Historian of the Year in 2001.

Border Tales Around the Camp Fire, in the Rocky Mountains Chaplain Tuttle, 1878     Border Tales Around the Camp Fire, in the Rocky Mountains Edmund Bostwick Tuttle, 1878     The Brooklyn Magazine, 1886     Antiquarian Bookman, 1962     San Antonio Man Tells Tall Tale John T. Saunders Jr., 2015-12-16 San Antonio Man Tells Tall Tale is a memoir of a south Texas boy coming of age in the second half of the twentieth century. Each tale more thrilling than the last, the book chronicles a lifetime of hunting, fishing, and traveling throughout Texas, the Gulf Coast, the Rocky Mountains, and South America. These powerful and often humorous stories of chasing white-tail deer, avoiding snakes, fishing for blue marlin, and even courting his wife are based on the author's experiences in the great outdoors with close friends and family. Colorful illustrations by San Antonio artists Clay McLaughy and Pat Safir bring the stories to life. In the end, the reader will find that these are not tall tales at all, but the real-life experiences of a lucky kid growing up in South Texas. Filled with humorous twists and turns, this book makes for a fun read for anyone.

Report North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey, 1905     The American People in Their Stories, Legends, Tall Tales, Traditions, Ballads and Songs Benjamin Albert Botkin, 1946     Tar Heel Tales Henry Edward Cowan Bryant, 1910     North Carolina Geological Survey: Pratt, J.H. & J.V. Lewis. Corundum and the peridotites of western North Carolina. 1905, 1905     The Court-Martial of General John Pope Steven Condon, 2013-02 This book, which takes a bold new look at the Second Manassas Campaign, is full of surprises, including a mistaken mountain, a warning that never was, and Pope's real plan for entrapping Stonewall Jackson. It contains an amazing Union supporting cast that includes a train-stealing renegade general, another general who was sent to reinforce Pope but who nevertheless sought to abandon him on the eve of battle, and another Union general who gloated over what he foresaw as Pope's imminent battlefield defeat and then, not surprisingly, repeatedly delayed the forwarding of reinforcements to Pope. No, The Court-Martial of General John Pope is not alternate history. And no, the many startling insights and new discoveries within this book are not fictions, even though they are presented within the framework of a fictional trial taking place in the afterlife. It seems that the much maligned Union general John Pope has demanded a trial in order to once and for all clear his military reputation from 150 years of accumulated slights slanders and misconceptions And who is defending Pope in the Valhalla Courthouse none other than that peerless American defense attorney Clarence Darrow The packed courtroom blazes with electricity and occasionally thunders in outrage as the wily Darrow pulls one white rabbit after another out of his well stocked magician s hat in a performance that rivals his very best But Darrow has his work cut out for him as he faces a tribunal as daunting as any that ever sat in judgment at Nuremberg packed as it is with the ablest generals of history Ranging across the centuries from Alexander the Great to America s George S Patton these masters of the military art have like all others long considered Pope to be a laughingstock Equally entertaining are the events outside the courtroom as twice each day three noted members of the press corps including Mark Twain and Nellie Bly furiously debate among themselves the merits of Darrow s long string of revelations Readers can enjoy the excitement of courtroom drama as they thrill to some of the most startling discoveries in Civil War history in recent times and discover one of the fiercest but least known rivalries in American history This is because Court Martial boasts as its centerpiece a rivalry that was perhaps the most fascinating and devastating in American history the fierce competition between Union General John Pope the darling of the radical Republicans and Union General George McClellan the military standard bearer of the conservative Democratic Party and later Abraham Lincoln s Democratic opponent for President in 1864 Court Martial convincingly demonstrates for perhaps the first time the true depth and terrible impact of this fateful rivalry Competing with the Pope McClellan rivalry for attention however is the drama of the controversy that spurred one of the most celebrated and politically volatile courtroom battles of the latter half of the 19th Century the fifteen year conflict between John Pope and the general officer who was court martialed and drummed out of the army for not giving Pope his full support at Second Manassas Major General Fitz John Porter noted friend and protege of George McClellan The often amazing evidence brought forward by Darrow in his client s defense is well corroborated by over 300 end notes Some historians and Civil War aficionados may object to the placement of this new evidence inside a dramatic fictional story But given the degree to which John Pope s military reputation has unintentionally been misrepresented and the 130 years for which this has gone on it was felt that in order to shake the public s long frozen opinion of John Pope free from its icebound state the setting of a trial and the skills of an advocate of the caliber of Clarence Darrow wer Constitution and By-laws of the American Water Works Association, Together with the Proceedings of the ...
