The Angry Ghost 86:

Women, Pilgrimage, and Rituals of Healing in Modern and Ancient Greece Evy Johanne Håland, 2023-07-21 This book investigates religious rituals and gender in modern and ancient Greece with a specific focus on women's role in connection with healing. How can we come to understand such mainstays of ancient culture as its healing rituals when the male recorders did not and could not know or say much about what occurred since the rituals were carried out by women? The book proposes that one way of tackling this dilemma is to attend similar healing rituals in modern Greece carried out by women and compare the information with ancient sources, thus providing new ways of interpreting the ancient material we possess. Carrying out fieldwork being present during often enduring rituals within cultures despite other changes teaches one whole new ways of looking at written and pictorial records of such events. By bringing ancient and modern worlds into mutual illumination, this text also has relevance beyond the Greek context both in time and space.

A Traveler's Guide to the Afterlife Mark Mirabello, 2016-09-15 A grand survey of the world's death and afterlife traditions throughout history. Examines beliefs from many different cultures on the soul, heaven, hell, and reincarnation; instructions for accessing the different worlds of the afterlife; how one may become a god; and how ethics and the afterlife may not be connected. Explores techniques to communicate with the dead, including s'ance instructions. Includes an extensive bibliography of more than 900 sources from around the world. Drawing on death and afterlife traditions from cultures around the world, Mark Mirabello explores the many forms of existence beyond death and each tradition's instructions to access the afterlife. He examines beliefs on the soul, heaven, hell, and reincarnation and wisdom from Books of the Dead such as the Book of Going Forth by Day from Egypt, the Katha Upanishad from India, the Bardo Thodol from Tibet, the Golden Orphic Tablets from Greece, Lieh Tzu from China, and Heaven and its Wonders and Hell from Things Heard and Seen from 18th century Europe. Considering the question "What is Death?" Mirabello provides answers from a wide range of ancient and modern thinkers, including scientist Nicholas Maxwell, the seer Emanuel Swedenborg, 1st century Buddhist philosopher Nagarjuna, and Greek philosopher Euripides, who opined that we may already be dead and only dreaming we are alive. He explores the trek of the soul through life and death with firsthand accounts of the death journey and notes that what is perceived as death here may actually be life somewhere else. He reveals how in many traditions, ethics and the afterlife are not connected and how an afterlife is possible even without a god or a soul. Sharing evidence that consciousness is not simply a product of the brain, he offers a strong rebuttal to nihilists, materialists, and the Lokayata philosophical school of India, who believe in the finality of death. He explains how specters and ghosts are produced and offers techniques to communicate with the dead, as well as instructions for an out-of-body experience and the complete procedure for a s'ance. With an extensive bibliography of more than 900 sources, this guide offers comprehensive information on afterlife beliefs from the vast majority of cultures around the world and throughout history: a veritable traveler's guide to the afterlife.

Terror Down Under Daniel Best, 2023-07-27 In 1948 the Australian government banned the production importation and exhibition of horror films in a move to appease religious communities and entertainment watchdogs Drawing upon previously unseen government documents private letters and contemporary newspaper accounts this book is the first to extensively cover the history of censorship and the early production of horror movies in Australia Beginning its examination in the late 19th century the book documents the earliest horror films like Georges Melies The Haunted Castle 1896 and how Australians enjoyed such films before the ban The book then explains how certain imports like 1954 s Creature from the Black Lagoon were able to circumvent the ban while others were not It also reveals how Australian television though similarly impacted by government censorship was occasionally able to broadcast films technically banned from cinematic release The work concludes with a look at the first Australian horror films produced after the ban was formally lifted in 1969 like Terry Bourke s Night of Fear 1973 Poigne Hubert Joseph Treston,1923
