The Capital Question Of China:

The Capital Question of China Lionel Curtis, 1932 The Capital Question of China - Primary Source Edition Lionel Curtis, 2013-12-07 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book Millard's Review of the Far East, 1928 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925 China's Contested Capital Charles D. Musgrove, 2013-07-31 When the Chinese Nationalist Party nominally reunified the country in 1928 Chiang Kai shek and other party leaders insisted that Nanjing was better suited than Beijing to serve as its capital For the next decade until the Japanese invasion in 1937 Nanjing was the model capital of Nationalist China the center of not just a new regime but also a new modern outlook in a China destined to reclaim its place at the forefront of nations Interesting parallels between China's recent rise under the Post Mao Chinese Communist Party and the Nationalist era have brought increasing scholarly attention to the Nanjing Decade 1927-1937 however study of Nanjing itself has been neglected Charles Musgrove brings the city back into the discussion of China's modern development focusing on how it was transformed from a factional capital with only regional influence into a symbol of nationhood a city where newly forming ideals of citizenship were celebrated and contested on its streets and at its monuments China's Contested Capital investigates the development of the model capital from multiple perspectives It explores the ideological underpinnings of the project by looking at the divisive debates surrounding the new capital's establishment as well as the ideological discourse of Sun Yat Sen used to legitimize it In terms of the actual building of the city it provides an analysis of both the scientific methodology adopted to plan it and the aesthetic experiments employed to construct it Finally it examines the political and social life of the city looking at not only the reinvented traditions that gave official spaces a sacred air but also the ways that people actually used streets and monuments including the Sun Yat Sen Mausoleum to pursue their own interests often in defiance of Nationalist repression Contrary to the conventional story of incompetence and failure Musgrove shows that there was more to Nationalist Party nation building than simply paper plans that never came to fruition He argues rather that the model capital essentially legitimized a new form of state power embodied in new symbolic systems that the Communist Party was able to tap into after defeating the Nationalists in 1949 At the same time the book makes the case that although it was unintended by party planners who promoted single party rule Nanjing's legitimacy was also a product of protests and contestation which the party state only partially succeeded in channeling for its own ends China's Contested Capital is an important contribution to the literature on twentieth century Chinese urban history and the social and political history of one of China's key cities during the Republican period The National Review, China ,1912 China ,1924 The China Critic ,1929 China's Banking Law and the National Treatment of Foreign-Funded Banks Wei Wang,2016-05-23 This book assesses new developments in and reform of China's banking law system following its accession of the WTO It focuses on the relationship between GATS WTO national treatment obligations and China's banking law Tracing the history of national treatment in China the book compares the treatment of foreign funded banks with the treatment of Chinese funded banks and examines the structure and shortcomings of the existing banking law framework in China Offering suggestions as to how the framework could be restructured and analysing the economic and political bases of an integrated banking law framework the book argues that reorganization would bring about greater consistency with GATS WTO national treatment requirements The book also explores the ambiguous definition of prudential carve out the subtle relationship between GATS national treatment and market access based on WTO cases national treatment clauses in China's bilateral investment treaties and special treatment on banking in China's free trade agreements This volume is a valuable resource for academics and students as well as professionals and policy makers working in the field of banking WTO Chinese law and foreign trade 1001 Questions and Answers on General History Benjamin Adams Hathaway,1888 Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain),1909 Millard's China National Review Thomas Franklin Fairfax Millard,John Benjamin Powell,John William Powell,1920 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925 The Six-hour Day & Other Industrial Questions William Hesketh Lever Leverhulme (Viscount),1918 China's Millions ,1884 The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament,1900 The North-China Herald and Supreme Court & Consular Gazette ,1912 Proposed Eligibility of the People's Republic of China for Participation in the Food for Peace Program United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry,1982 China's Economic Culture Carsten Herrmann-Pillath,2016-10-04 China's spectacular rise challenges established economic moulds both at the national level with the concept of state capitalism and at the firm level with the notion of indigenous Chinese management practices However both Chinese and Western observers emphasise the transitional nature of the reforms thereby leaving open the question as to whether China's reform process is really a fast catch up process with ultimate convergence to global standards or something different This book by a leading economist and sinologist argues that culture is an exceptionally useful tool to help understand fully the current picture of the Chinese economy Drawing on a range of disciplines including social psychology cognitive sciences institutional economics and Chinese studies the book examines long run path dependencies and cultural legacies and shows how these contribute crucially to the current cultural construction of economic systems business organisations and patterns of embedding the economy into society and politics The Japan Daily Mail ,1900 The China Weekly Review ,1923 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1927 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the session of the Parliament
