Literature for Children David L. Russell,2005 This succinct yet comprehensive introduction to children s literature focuses on genres and concepts rather than on particular authors The completely updated edition of this groundbreaking text provides students with a clear literary perspective for understanding the foundations and contexts of literature including the various genres of children s literature from picture to informational books This Fifth Edition continues to be approachable and inviting with its clear and logical organization and its simple and direct prose New To The Fifth Edition New reorganization of chapters provides a better segue between Part I and II Completely re written chapter previously titled child development now includes broader issues of children's studies and how they impact the literature. Significantly expanded history of children's literature including more titles and authors provides a thorough and comprehensive background. What Reviewers Are Saying: I'm quite impressed with the way the author has succinctly discussed difficult ideas. Professor Mike Cadden, Missouri Western State College. Students unfailingly react positively to Literature for Children: A Short Introduction. It has a consistency in presentation and writing style that makes it a very considerate text. Professor Patricia Leek, University of Texas Dallas. About the Author: David L. Russell is a professor of languages and literature at Ferris State University in Michigan where he teaches children's literature. His publications include critical biographies of Scott O. Dell and Patricia MacLachlan as well as numerous scholarly articles. A former member of the Executive Board of the Children's Literature Association, he is currently book review editor for The Lion and the Unicorn.

Let's Read! Elizabeth Crosby Stull, 2000. This unique resource helps educators spark young children's interest in learning the alphabet and develop beginning reading skills right from the beginning to the close of school. Included are over 500 ready-to-use individual and classroom activities designed to be used sequentially from one month to the next to build skills related to reading and other curriculum areas and foster children's enthusiasm for books and learning to read. All activities are organized into nine monthly sections: September through May/June and include over 100 activity sheets. Each month includes a list of 10 picture books for daily reading, phonics and other basic skills instructions, ABC Marching Band Letters for learning letter sound connections, reading links to holidays and special events, reading links to writing, math, social studies, science, health, author of the month studies, and activities plus 10-13 illustrated reproducible activities.
