THE MANDARINS FAN FERGUS HUME, 1904      Francisco Varo's Grammar of the Mandarin Language, 1703
Francisco Varo, 2000-01-01 Francisco Varo's Arte de la Lengua Mandarina completed ca 1680 is the earliest published grammar of any spoken form of Chinese and the fullest known description of the standard language of the seventeenth century. It establishes beyond doubt that this Language of the Mandarins was not Pekingese or Peking based but had instead a Jiang Huai or Nankingese like phonology. It also provides important information about the nature and formation of pre-modern standard forms of Chinese and will lead to revisions of currently held views on Chinese koines and their relationship with regional speech forms and the received vernacular literature. Finally, it provides a wealth of information on stylistic speech levels, honorific usage, and social customs of the elite during the early Qing period. The book provides a full translation of the 1703 text of the Arte, an extensive introduction to the life and work of Varo, an index of Chinese characters inserted into the translation, and an index of linguistic terms and concepts. It should be of interest to a diverse readership of Chinese historical, comparative, and descriptive linguists, students of Qing history and literature, historiographers of linguistics, and specialists in early Western religious and cultural contact with China.      The Mandarin Effect: The Crisis of Meaning Joe Dixon, 2019-12 Are you struggling to find meaning in your life? Then you are a victim of the Mandarin Effect. This is one of the most sinister features of the modern world and is being highlighted here for the first time. The force that most contributes to the crisis of meaning is the last one you would expect. Who are the Mandarins and how are they ruining the world? What can be done about them? Who are the small group that can combat the Mandarins and why have they been airbrushed out of history as if they never existed? Come inside and read the extraordinary story of a hidden war that is shaping the destiny of the human race. Humanity is currently losing. But thanks to one group, hope is not yet extinguished.      The Mandarins Simone de Beauvoir, 1999 In her most famous novel The Mandarins, Simone de Beauvoir takes an unflinching look at Parisian intellectual society at the end of World War II. In fictionally relating the stories of those around her, Jean Paul Sartre, Albert Camus, Arthur Koestler, Nelson Algren, de Beauvoir dissects the emotional and philosophical currents of her time. At once an engrossing drama and an intriguing political tale, The Mandarins is the emotional odyssey of a woman torn between her inner desires and her public life. Much more than a roman clef, a moving and engrossing novel. New York Times      The Last of the Mandarins Anthony Trawick Bouscaren, 1965      The Mandarin Carlton Dawe, 1899      The mandarin's daughter Samuel Mossman, 1876      The Mandarins of Western Europe Mattei Dogan, 1975      Minister to the Mandarins John R.
