An Index to Poetry and Recitations Edith Granger, 1918 Thomas J. Wise William B. Todd, 2014-07-03 Thomas James Wise 1859 1937 though destined to receive in his own lifetime practically every honor the world of letters could bestow is remembered today as perhaps the greatest malefactor in all of literary history From 1934 to 1957 various enquiries have implicated him first in the manufacture of more than fifty predated original editions of eminent Victorian authors then in seven additional forgeries later in countless piracies of other nineteenth century work and finally in repeated acts of vandalism upon forty one seventeenth century plays It is fitting that Wise himself appears as a contributor to this volume Included are his original introduction to the Browning Library his letters to bookseller J E Cornish his extraordinary letter to Sir Edmund Gosse and a note to H Buxton Forman These Centenary Studies review the course of research over twenty five years designate topics requiring further investigation and assess new evidence of Wise s villainies One more forgery is identified the provenance of others reexamined the forger s method of purveying his wares closely appraised his association with H Buxton Forman and Sir Edmund Gosse more precisely defined and the range of his activities summarized in an annotated handlist The record includes at least 400 printings directly attributed to Wise as well as 23 suppressed or abortive issues and 29 others in which he seems to be somewhat involved Through these perspectives the culprit appears even more contemptible and possibly for this very reason ever more intriguing as a cause célèbre in literary scholarship The illustration on the cover of this book reproduces through a magnifying glass the peculiar question mark appearing in certain forgeries printed for Wise by the firm of Richard Clay Sons The mark may also implicate Wise in other irregular printings including The Death of Balder The Congregationalist and Advance ,1919 The more excellent way, words of the wise on the life of love, meditations compiled by the hon. mrs. L. Gell More excellent way,1898 The Home Book of Quotations, Classical and Modern Burton Egbert Stevenson,1967 Wisdom ,1956 The First and Second Books of Chronicles A. Hughes-Games,1902 Victorian Poets and the Politics of Culture Antony H. Harrison,1998 With the publication of his ambitious new work Victorian Poets and the Politics of Culture Antony H Harrison continues his exploration of poetry as a significant force in the construction of English culture from 1837 1900 In chapters focusing on Victorian medievalist discourse Alfred Tennyson Elizabeth Barrett Browning Matthew Arnold and Christina Rossetti Harrison examines a range of Victorian poems in order to show the cultural work they accomplish He illuminates for example such culturally prominent Victorian mythologies as the exaltation of motherhood the Romanic appropriation of transcendent art and the idealization of the gypsy as a culturally alien exotic Other His investigation of the ways in which the authors intervene in the discourses that articulate such mythologies and thereby accrue cultural power along with his analysis of what constitutes cultural power are original contributions to the field of Victorian studies The power of Victorian poetry by midcentury was enhanced by the institutionalization of particular channels through which it circulated Harrison writes poetry was consumed in more varied forms than was other literature Victorian Poets and the Politics of Culture has implications for both cultural studies and the study of literature outside the Victorian period The Congregationalist ,1919 The first and second books of Chronicles, ed. by A. Hughes-Games Joshua Hughes- Games,1902 The Week-end Review of Politics, Books, the Theatre, Art and Music ,1930
