The Emotional Effects of Testifying on Sexually Abused Children, 1994      The Children of Atomic Bomb Survivors National Research Council, Division on Earth and Life Studies, Commission on Life Sciences, 1991-02-01 Do persons exposed to radiation suffer genetic effects that threaten their yet to be born children Researchers are concluding that the genetic risks of radiation are less than previously thought This finding is explored in this volume about the children of atomic bomb survivors in Hiroshima and Nagasaki the population that can provide the greatest insight into this critical issue Assembled here for the first time are papers representing more than 40 years of research These documents reveal key results related to radiation s effects on pregnancy termination sex ratio congenital defects and early mortality of children Edited by two of the principal architects of the studies J V Neel and W J Schull the volume also offers an important comparison with studies of the genetic effects of radiation on mice The wealth of technical details will be immediately useful to geneticists and other specialists Policymakers will be interested in the overall conclusions and discussion of future studies      The Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology of the British Empire, 1906      What Works with Children and Adolescents? Alan Carr, 2013-07-23 What Works with Children and Adolescents fulfils the need for a concise empirically based study of the types of psychological treatments that may be effective for common psychological problems in childhood and adolescence Providing a solid foundation for evidence based practice in the treatment of children and adolescents the book offers evidence from over 150 rigorously conducted research trials Examining problems which are of central concern to practising clinicians including child abuse enuresis and encopresis ADHD childhood conduct problems adolescent violence drug abuse anxiety and depression anorexia and bulimia nervosa paediatric pain and post divorce adjustment problems it also highlights priority areas for future research on the treatment of children and adolescents psychological problems What Works with Children and Adolescents complements The Handbook of Child and Adolescent Clinical Psychology Carr 2006 and will be valuable to professionals in training      In re Mathers, 371 MICH 516 (1963), 1963 47951      The Unstable Child Florence Edna Mateer, 1924      Report on the physical welfare of mothers and children ... v. 3 Carnegie United Kingdom Trust, 1917      Comparative Perspectives on Work-Life Balance and Gender Equality Margaret O'Brien, Karin Wall, 2016-12-06 This book is open access under a CC BY NC 2 5 license This book portrays men s experiences of home alone leave and how it affects their lives and family gender roles in different policy contexts and explores how this unique parental leave design is implemented in these contrasting policy regimes The book brings together three major theoretical strands social policy in particular the literature on comparative leave policy developments family and gender studies in particular the analysis of gendered divisions of work and care and recent shifts in parenting and work family balance critical studies of men and masculinities with a specific focus on fathers and fathering in contemporary western societies and life courses Drawing on empirical data from in depth interviews with fathers across eleven countries the book shows that the experiences and social processes associated with fathers home alone leave involve a diversity of trends revealing both innovations and absence of change including pluralization as well as the constraining influence of policy gender and social context As a theoretical and empirical book it raises important issues on modernization of the life course and the family in contemporary societies The book will be of particular interest to scholars in comparing western societies and welfare states as well as to scholars seeking to understand changing work life policies and family life in societies with different social and historical pathways
