Gill traverses the Atlantic to become the freshest chronicler of American identity in recent memory With a fiery temper a sharp tongued wit and an insatiable curiosity to figure out what makes more than 300 million of the world's population tick Gill traces the history and logic of our nation's habits collecting wild stories and startling facts along the way From Colorado where he meets a local vegetation expert and learns which flowers were in Pochontas's nuptial bouquet to Kentucky where he visits the Creationist Museum and drinks moonshine with a hog farmer and to Harlem where he misses a turn and stumbles into the wrong barbershop for a once in a lifetime haircut Gill embarks on a tour of not only the nation's landscape but also its psyche playing adventurer philosopher statistician and raconteur all at once In inimitable fashion he explains why pressing a button in a Manhattan elevator means entering a social contract of American etiquette and inverting conventional hierarchies of space why browsing through Playboy centerfolds becomes the perfect litmus test for a generation's political views and how Hollywood is the metaphysical marketplace for movies the place where Americans are sold on American romance and taught how to dream the American dream Weaving together a tapestry of historical erudition and outrageous anecdotes Gill ultimately captures the scope and spirit of a nation that started off as a conceptual experiment and became a political scientific and cultural fortress This humorous and revelatory book shows us why we are who we are by transforming ordinary experiences into extraordinary lessons and promising to never let us look in the mirror the same way again

within This is their story Born with severe asthma and enormous dreams James Gardiner began his life in conflict with himself Little Jimmy wanted to reach for the stars like his science fiction icons and become a sports superstar like the paper heroes that adorned the walls of his childhood bedroom But as a frequent visitor to the local hospital viewing the world through the plastic walls of an oxygen tent such dreams seemed like they would always be firmly out of reach However it was there on the pediatric wing that he began to entertain audiences with his stories and charm growing to like the attention In fact to crave it He wanted to be somebody and for the first time his dreams didn't seem quite so out of reach As he got older and his asthma became more manageable he began forging his path of destiny First through the sport of rowing where the fragile young man dared to challenge his asthma and strive for the Olympic podium Then it was his lust to be a movie star that thrust him into New York City and Los Angeles to world of fashion celebrity and even murder But it was his one unanswerable question that repeatedly seemed to leave his life in shambles Can his fantasy life be his reality became the albatross that hung over the man and the boy Somewhere along the way he had lost touch with that childlike part of himself that looked at the world each day with joy and wonder Looking back he had gone all in on his quest to be somebody but now as a middle aged man left with nothing and no one it was time to reconnect with little Jimmy and go all in on himself to go all in with love Within their story of reconnection lies the gateway to reclaim your inner child and live your best most authentic life
