Would Be Widow:

Wife to Widow Bettina Bradbury, 2011-05-01 This monumental study of two generations of women who married either before or after the Patriote rebellions of 1837-38 explores the meaning of the transition from wife to widowhood in early nineteenth century Montreal. Bettina Bradbury weaves together the individual biographies of twenty women against the backdrop of collective genealogies of over 500 to offer new insights into the law, politics, demography, religion, and domestic life of the time. She shows how women from all walks of life interacted with and shaped Montreal's culture, customs, and institutions even as they laboured under the shifting conditions of patriarchy. Wife to Widow provides a rare window into the significance of marriage and widowhood.
