Writing and Representing Qualitative Research Maria K. E. Lahman, 2021-08-31 This book addresses foundational areas of qualitative writing such as journal articles and dissertations aesthetic representations including poetry and autoethnography publishing and reflexivity in representation in one practical and engaging text based on real experiences Author Maria K E Lahman draws on her experiences as a qualitative research professor and writing instructor and as someone who has published widely in scholarly journals employing both traditional and more innovative forms of writing The first part of the book covers writing tips how to represent data how to write a qualitative thematic journal article how to write a qualitative dissertation and provides guidance on the publication process The second part encourages the qualitative researcher to move beyond traditional forms of writing and consider how qualitative research can be represented more aesthetically as poems autoethnographies and visually The book concludes with a chapter on reflexivity in research representations Throughout the author provides vivid examples from her own work and that of graduate students and colleagues Conferring with Young Writers Kristin Ackerman, Jennifer McDonough, 2023-10-10 If you've ever sat down to confer with a child and felt at a loss for what to say or how to help move him or her forward as a writer this book is for you If you are a strong teacher of writing but are not seeing results from your students this book is for you Authors Kristin Ackerman and Jennifer McDonough have been teaching writing for several years and know that conferring can be a murky and messy process perhaps the hardest component of all Written from the lessons they've learned through hard won classroom experience their mistakes and challenges Conferring with Young Writers is based on what Kristin and Jen call the three Fs frequency focus and follow up They've created a classroom management system that offers routine and structure for giving the most effective feedback in a writing conference This book will help writing teachers and students learn to break down and utilize the qualities that enable good writing elaboration voice structure conventions and focus The authors also provide the knowledge and skills it takes to confer well which will help you improve as a writing teacher and give your students the confidence to think of themselves as writers
