Writing In The Dust

Edward William Lane

Writing In The Dust:

Writing in the Dust Rowan Williams, 2002 In the face of the great evil of September 11 one ought to speak in hushed tones humbly and graciously as before a mystery That is what Rowman Williams does in these deep and moving theological reflections Nicholas Wolterstorff Yale Divinity School

Inventing Place Casey Boyle, Jenny Rice, 2018-04-30 This book offers a sustained but varying examination of the spatial temporal dynamics that compose place Essays blend personal and scholarly accounts of Texas sites examining place as a creation formed through the collaboration of a body with a particular space

Part-Architecture Emma Cheatle, 2017-07-20 Part Architecture presents a detailed and original study of Pierre Chareau s Maison de Verre through another seminal modernist artwork Marcel Duchamp s Large Glass Aligning the two works materially historically and conceptually the book challenges the accepted architectural descriptions of the Maison de Verre makes original spatial and social accounts of its inhabitation in 1930s Paris and presents new architectural readings of the Large Glass Through a rich analysis which incorporates creative projects into history and theory research the book establishes new ways of writing about architecture Designed for politically progressive gynaecologist Dr Jean Dalsace and his avant garde wife Annie Dalsace the Maison de Verre combines a family home with a gynaecology clinic into a free plan layout Screened only by glass walls the presence of the clinic in the home suggests an untold dialogue on 1930s sexuality The text explores the Maison de Verre through another radical glass construction the Large Glass where Duchamp s complex depiction of unconsummated sexual relations across the glass planes reveals his resistance to the marital conventions of 1920s Paris This and other analyses of the Large Glass are used as a framework to examine the Maison de Verre as a register of the changing history of women's domestic and maternal choices reclaiming the building as a piece of female social architectural history The process used to uncover and write the accounts in the book is termed part architecture Derived from psychoanalytic theory part architecture fuses analytical descriptive and creative processes to produce a unique social and architectural critique Identifying three essential materials to the Large Glass the book has three main chapters Glass Dust and Air Combining theory text creative writing and drawing each traces the history and meaning of the material and its contribution to the spaces and sexuality of the Large Glass and the Maison de Verre As a whole the book contributes important and unique spatial readings to existing scholarship and expands definitions of architectural design and history
